

El Camino Majorettes Step High, Wide and Handsome

El Camino is proud of the fact that it has some of the most talented majorettes in the country. They are Gaye Wilson who is a second year majorette. In last year's competition for the title of Miss Torrance, Miss Wilson was awarded the crown and represented Torrance in the Miss California contest. She was also named Miss Walteria and Miss Community Fair. Marge Dunning, head majorette who hails from a family of twirlers. Born in Gary, Indiana, Miss Dunning took her first baton twirling lesson at the age of nine. After only one and one-half years of training, she set out on her own and attended various twirling clinics and conferences and gave lessons herself. Miss Dunning taught baton for the Santa Monica Recreation Department for three years with the help of her mother and sister, Iris, who is a former El Camino majorette. While attending Morningside High school, Miss Dunning organized her own parade unit which consisted of 20 girls from the Inglewood area. The group was known as the "MIDettes of Morningside," the MID standing for Marge and Iris Dunning. After competing with the group for two years, Miss Dunning made television appearances and went on tour with the USO. Jerry Rusk is a native of Colorado. She was raised in Torrance, where she attended high school and after graduation in 1956, came to El Camino. In her junior high school years she performed in recitals and other shows. Miss Rusk is now in her second year as a majorette at El Camino. Her first baton teacher was Ann Olson who also taught her dancing.

New Yorkers Form Alumni Association

The Brooklyn College Alumni Association now has a Southern California chapter. The new group's next meeting will be held November 15 at 8 p.m. sharp at the UCLA campus, Men's Lounge, Kerckhoff Hall (402 Westwood Blvd.). The program will feature a lecture and film on the United Nations and a fabulous collection of dolls from all over the world. Refreshments will be served. All this and a chance to meet old friends, too! Husbands, wives, and friends of alumni are welcome. For further information write or call Mrs. Bert Schwartz, 5639 Wenlock st., Los Angeles 16.

Society Meets November 22

Organizational meeting of the new South East Particular Council of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will take place at 8 p.m. on Friday, November 22, in St. Michael's parish hall, 1016 W. Manchester ave. Joseph Gallus, president of St. Mariana de Paredes Parish Conference, has been appointed first president of the new council, it was announced by Paul Sheedy, organization chairman. The council covers the area from Manchester Blvd. to 190th St. and from Inglewood to the San Gabriel River. St. Vincent de Paul Conferences in the area already have been established in 11 parishes including Nativity in Torrance. Representatives of these conferences will attend the organizational meeting, Sheedy said. In 1956 there were 4,782,416 farms in the United States.

New Pledges Welcomed

Pi Phi, Manhattan Beach chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, held a formal banquet and ritual recently at Andy Locos Cockatoo. New members pledged were Mmes. Richard Caramadre, Benny Terracciano, Jim Meador, Jack Parker, Joe Disparte, and Miss Harriette Bass. After the ceremony, Mrs. Helen Nicely, president of Pi Phi Chapter led the receiving line welcoming the new pledges to the chapter. The banquet room was decorated in banks of yellow roses and chrysanthemums and sprays of greenery, place cards and programs were created with the Greek letters, Beta Sigma Phi and one yellow rose to carry out the theme of the occasion. A gift of perfume and monogrammed address books were presented to the pledges by Mrs. Donald Bromley, vice president of Pi Phi. Members welcoming the new pledges to the chapter were Mmes. Helen Nicely, Robert Grable, Thayne Connell, Harry Strang, Robert Stroud, Joe Secula, Donald Hake, Bill Garrison, Charles Fitzpatrick, A. Robert Todd, Fred Dostal, Jim Seaton, Robert Coon, and Edith Scammell. SELLING LAND'S SIMPLE through Torrance Press Classified ads. Small plot or large—phone FA 8-2345 for an advertiser.

Former Resident To Visit Here

Bill Brase, formerly of Torrance, now residing in Oroville, Wash., plans to visit his mother, Mrs. Belva Brase of 2435 Border ave. soon. Brase will bring 100 boxes of Golden Delicious apples which is a part of the 500 boxes of apples that he and his family have raised during his time out from his electrical duties this summer. American shoe manufacturers produced a record 592 million pairs in 1956.
