

Guiding philosophy of the Foundation for the Junior Blind, unique non-profit organization serving over 200 sightless youngsters in Los Angeles County, is that blindness need not be a handicap, but can be merely a limitation.

Fashion Show

Holiday Treasures was the theme of the fashion show presented by Pi Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi last Wednesday. Fashions shown were from Fine Fashions of Redondo Beach, and Frida Fine did the commentary.

The festive fashions for around the clock wear were modeled by Helaine Seaton of Manhattan Beach, Kathleen Hake of Santa Monica, Jo Ellen Fitzpatrick of Hawthorne, Jeanette Disparte of Los Angeles, Grace Noel of Palos Verdes, Marilyn Speck of Hermosa Beach, and Vi Young of Hawthorne. Hair styles for models were created by Mr. Jess, Hair Stylist of Torrance.

Youngsters Entertain Mothers

A novel feature of the November meeting of Nativity School Mothers club, was a presentation, "October Gave a Party," by members of the third grade, under the direction of Mrs. Ann Colton.

Led by "Professor Wind" and "Miss Weather", the girls, colorfully dressed to represent autumn leaves, danced to the call of the wind, while the boys, costumed as Indians, gave the recitation. Later the boys sang an Indian song and took part in a peace-pipe ceremony.

Rev. Joseph McArdle, new pastor at Nativity, addressed the 200 mothers present. Refreshments were served by the 7th grade mothers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Eugene Slomb.

GUEST SPEAKER

The guest speaker for the Pacific Unitarian Church Society, on Sunday, November 24, at 11 a.m., will be Rev. Howard Matson, formerly minister of the Santa Monica Unitarian church. Rev. Howard's topic will be "Modern Incantations", a sermon on the survival of irrational moods in a seemingly rational culture. Visitors are welcome.

Mrs. Tennant to Lecture At Science Church In R.B.

How spiritual understanding of God can solve problems of daily life, including fear, disease and sin, will be the topic of a free lecture on Christian Science to be given here Tuesday, November 26, at 8 p.m. by Georgina Tennant of London, England.

Mrs. Tennant, a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will speak in the church edifice at Sapphire and Broadway, Redondo Beach under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist. Her subject will be "Christian Science: It's Practical Message", and the lecture is open to the public. Mrs. Tennant has lived in many parts of the world, including Great Britain, India, Australian, and the United States. She has been a Christian Science practitioner since 1938, with her offices in London. From 1947 to 1950 she was Second Reader of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. Her work as a Christian Science lecturer continues her extensive travels throughout the world.

Fashion Show, Luncheon Slated for December 2

Fashions from "Around the World in Many Ways" will highspot the gay luncheon party given by the Anna Grancoll South Bay Chapter of Mount Sinai hospital December 2 at 12 o'clock noon in the Clark Auditorium, 861 Valley dr., Hermosa Beach.

Fall styles and accessories through the courtesy of the Budget Shop on Redondo Beach Blvd., will be modeled by beautiful mannequins from within the membership ranks. Models include Mmes. Judy Sussman, Lila Bozeman, Selma Swartz, Dorothy Cole, Evelyn Weinstein, Myra Belford, Mildred Rivo, Elisa Fontwit, Lorraine Greenband and June Wall.

In charge of the arrangements are Mmes. Beverly Collins and Ann Berns, co-chairmen.

Carrying out the world-wide motif in decoration, Trans-World Airlines has cooperated with attractive scenic views from the far corners of the globe.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mmes. Ruth Boock, Clara Feuerstein, Ann Berns, Barbara Lieber and Lorri Alfred.

Souvenirs will be presented to the guests. Luncheon music will be provided by Sylvia Siegal and Linda Chaiken who will present their own composition for the "Around the World in Many Ways" party.

The Chapter invites friends and neighbors to attend for an afternoon of delightful enjoyment. Funds raised by the group will go toward maintenance of the non-profit, non-sectarian Mount Sinai hospital and Clinic of which it is an official arm of support in the Bay Cities areas. Mrs. Lee Leeds is president.

Building Fund Drive Begins

The building fund campaign of the Walteria Community Methodist church was started officially at a kick-off dinner held recently. J. A. Bpsley, one of the charter members, gave a summary of the church from the beginning to the present time.

Bud Rose and Frank Hunter, Associate Directors of the campaign, and Robert Cramer, official board chairman, also spoke briefly.

Rev. Magee Wilkes, campaign director, who closed the meeting, outlined the goals of the building fund campaign.

League Starts "Know Your County" Tour

A "Know Your County" study by the League of Women voters of Palos Verdes Estates got under way recently with a tour of Los Angeles County facilities. The tour was arranged for members of the committee by Mrs. B. R. Claire, chairman of the study.

As guests of Supervisor Burton Chase, the Leaguers attended a meeting of the County Board of Supervisors. Neil McLaughlin, Senior Administrative Analyst from the Administrative office of Los Angeles County, gave a talk and answered questions.

The group had lunch in the private dining room of the Los Angeles County General hospital. Miss Evelyn Hamel, director of Nursing Services and Education, gave a talk.

The tour concluded with a visit to Juvenile Hall in the afternoon.

PTA to Make Choir Robes

Recently the Harbor City PTA held the regular association meeting, at which time the group voted to make choir robes for the students.

Mrs. James Alexander, president, announced at the same meeting that only 93% had been reached towards membership.

The Webelos of Pack 743C led the pledge of allegiance, B6 class, under the direction of Mrs. Gertrude Crum, with Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, accompanist, sang "Angeline" and "Peace."

Mrs. C. L. Wilson who was introduced by program chairman, Mrs. Dallas Wallick, gave a demonstration of holiday decorations which included centerpieces, package wrapping, gifts, tree decorations and many other items.

On Wednesday, a kidnap breakfast was held at Mrs. Wallick's home. Mrs. William Shier, Harbor Regional Director, who also holds an office for Tenth District, Gateway Council and Lomita-San Pedro Council was among the guests.
