

DEBBIE DIXON, 5, of Arlington, Texas, 1957 Muscular Dystrophy Child, symbolizes more than 200,000 American victims of the crippling, fatal disease. Research funds are being sought by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America through the nationwide March For Muscular Dystrophy. MDA also sponsors clinics and patient services throughout the country.

Call Meeting of Southwood Homeowners

Police Protection Committee Chairman Gordon Akers will report on the extent and need of police services and traffic controls near school crossings at a meeting of the newly organized Southwood Homeowners Association at the Anza Elementary School cafeteria, 21400 Ellinwood dr., Wednesday, December 11, at 8 p.m.

Association officers are Jack Curran, president; Joe Bonchanski, vice-president; Fred Robinson, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Eichler, secretary. The Board of Directors include the above named officers, and Fran Galland, Cecil Sampson, Gordon Stevens, Mrs. R. E. Towers, and Paul Visser.

Included on the Agenda are reports and speakers about street lighting, little league baseball, boy scouts, and civil defense.

Lighting Committee Chairman John Brady will introduce Larry Lee of the Southern California Edison Company for a discussion of street lighting.

Henry Shuster spoke briefly at the November 13 meeting about Little League Baseball. At the Association's request, Mr. Ray W. Tibben was invited to the December 31 meeting to give the membership more detailed information.

Lions Sponsor Harbor Youth Symphony

The Harbor Area Youth Symphony Orchestra held its installation banquet last week at Gonzales restaurant in San Pedro.

Guest speaker was Lownds Maury, well known composer and pianist, and special guests were Robert Runge, music instructor at Narbonne High school, Margaret McCoy, who teaches English at Narbonne High and Elyse Aehle, conductor of the South Bay-Torrance Symphony orchestra.

Those taking new posts were Ed Pena, president, Gloria Thorp, vice-president, Lucy Harris, secretary, Janice Halick, treasurer, and Anita Jo Friedrichs, program director.

Curtis Bannoun, Sharon Bench, Judi Martin, Karen Eggers and Gene Benfer were officers last season.

The Harbor Area Youth Symphony orchestra, which is conducted by Eugene Minor will be sponsored this season by the Lomita-Harbor City Lions club.

Yule Ball Set By Douglas City Plant

Saturday, December 14, is the date set for the first annual Douglas Aircraft Torrance Engineering Christmas party, a dinner-dance to be held at Marineland, where the entire main dining room has been reserved for the occasion. Tickets, now on sale, are limited to engineering and change control personnel only.

Dinner will follow a social hour planned from 7 until 8 p.m., and dancing to the music of the Marineland combo will last until 2 a.m. The number of tickets is limited, according to T. J. Doherty, B6-250, dance committee chairman, who said they are selling on a first-come, first-served basis. Price has been set at $3.70 per person.

Others on the committee include J. R. Gohl and E. D. Williamson, promotion; M. J. Brudnicki and T. M. Dorsett, ticket sales; M. J. Healy, entertainment; Jiri Voss and Joy Fresenius, decorations, and C. Rojas, art advisor.
