Extend Run of '7-Year Itch'

Hampton Players' current show, "The Seven Year Itch" has proven such a hit that Director Jim Reeves has just announced an extended run. Originally scheduled to close this Saturday, there will now be performances on December 7, 13 and 14.

The premise of this play is a natural for adult comedy. As author George Aaelrod himself understates it, "All you needed was the basic idea and a knowledge of typing."

Richard Sherman (played by Dick Miller of Rolling Hills) is left alone in his apartment while wife (Pat Rogers of Hollywood Riviera) and son (Keith Homer Snook, aged 6) summer at the beach. A pretty young model (played by Connie Wills) is using the apartment upstairs. A potted plant falls from her window, barely missing his head, and things are off to a good start.

Others in the cast are Jack Drake as the harried psychiatrist, Neil Werner as the misunderstood friend of the family, and Marie Denn, Jean Snider and Jean Kluga as the lovely ladies Richard imagines are in love with him. Jean Snider also does the offstage voice of "The Girl's" conscience, while George Hocutt, who is also assistant director and handles the music, doubles in brass as the voice of Richard's conscience.

It is suggested that reservations be made in advance by calling FR-47117.

WIFE AND SON happily prepare to go away and leave "Poor Daddy" alone. Keith Homer Snook and Pat Rogers of Hollywood Riviera are shown in a scene from the Hampton Players "The Seven Year Itch" now playing at 129 Pacific ave. and scheduled for December 6, 7, 13 and 14. Curtain is at 8:30 p.m.

Leonard DiMiceli is GOP Candidate for Congress

Leonard DiMiceli, prominent San Pedro attorney and civic leader, has been endorsed as the official Republican candidate for Congress from the Seventeenth district, to oppose Rep. Cecil R. King, in next year's elections.

Meeting Monday night, the Candidate and Fact Finding Committee of the Seventeenth district after endorsing DiMiceli dedicated itself to a vigorous campaign to nominate and elect the candidate.

Robert H. Finch, chairman of the Republican Central Committee of Los Angeles county, and a member of the endorsing committee, said that "DiMiceli will have the full support of the Republican organization and United Republican Finance committee in the conduct of his campaign."

The committee of 125 leading Republicans is made up of representatives of the Republican County Central committee, the Republican State Central committee and all authorized volunteer Republican organizations of the district. The meeting was held in El Camino college.

Responding to the endorsement, DiMiceli pledged that he will "strive with all I have to make this campaign successful, for the love of the nation you believe in, and for the children to come. I shall campaign for American unity and for the perpetuation of Republican principles and ideals. I pledge you that I will always keep before me one yard-stick: If it is right, I will stand for it with all my energy, come what may, even to the loss of friends. If it is wrong, I shall oppose it with equal vigor."

Charles Soderstrom Jr., chairman of the Republican Central committee for the Seventeenth and chairman of the Candidate and Fact Finding committee, threw the wholehearted support of the group behind DiMiceli's candidacy.

DiMiceli has been a resident of San Pedro since 1942. He was born in Louisiana on October 30, 1905, received his LL.B. degree at the University of Idaho in 1934, and was admitted to the California bar in 1938. He was married in July, 1935, to M. Katherine McCaw, of Aberdeen, Washington. They have two daughters, Anna Marie, 15, and Mary Elizabeth, 8. He is a member of Grandview Methodist church, San Pedro.

He is a member of the Epsilon society; Phi Alpha Delta legal honorary society; was general chairman of the Republican Presidential Campaign committee for the Los Angeles Harbor area in 1952; general chairman, Eisenhower Volunteers, Los Angeles Harbor area, 1952; general chairman, Democrats for Eisenhower Campaign committee, Los Angeles Harbor area, 1952.
