

CHILDRENS PARTY—18va...
The Women of Moose will join the lodge members in presenting a children's Christmas party on Sunday, December 15, at 1 p.m., at the lodge hall, according to Peggy Peacock, chapter recorder.

Assisting the men of the Moose lodge with the children's party arrangements are Margaret Banding, Joyce McCune, Alice Swanson and Joyce Clay. Lodge and chapter members will decorate the hall Friday and Saturday.

Christmas At Thirteen Girls Enter Contest

The community Christmas program of the Normandale Playground will be held at 7 p.m. on Thursday, December 12 in the Community Center building at 22400 South Halldale.

The entire group of preschool children will perform with the Toy Band playing Christmas songs, singing and acting. "Jack in the Box," the "Dancing Puppets," and the "Ten Little Indians," will be featured. Older boys and girls will present the "Transfiguration of the Gifts." One cast will perform the play for the Community Christmas program on Thursday evening while the other cast will do their performing for the children's program on December 20. The Normandale Squelettes will act as an unseen choir to augment the voices of the younger children. The dance classes of the playground will present two skits "What's in the Box," and "The Little Fir Tree," and follow the skits with dances to "Jingle Bells," "Toy Maker's Song," "Silvery Bells," and "Winter Wonderland."

Recently 13 girls from Narbonne High school participated in a nationwide Betty Crocker cooking contest. All high school seniors across the country were eligible.

The girls who took the test at Narbonne were Bonnie Brown, Sharon Chadock, Joanne Cronin, Cathy Geier, Jean McLachlan, and Nora McNight. Others who participated were Carol Mitchell, Georgia Scopus, Carol Simmons, Regis Stevens, Sherian Thompson, Carolyn Whitson, and Elgie Wightman.

A Trefari pin will be presented to the winner in each high school. A winner will be chosen from each state and a national winner will then be selected. The state winners will be presented on a television broadcast and the national winner will be announced.

Prizes will be awarded to state and national winners. A $1500 scholarship will be given to each state winner and to the national winner goes a $5000 scholarship. The winners will not be announced for a month.

Sorority to Aid Needy

Regular meeting of Xi Zeta Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, nonacademic sorority, was held recently at the home of Mrs. John Wise, 15122 Florwood ave., Lawndale.

The program "Clothing Madame" was presented by Mrs. William Raines.

The chapter voted to donate money to provide a canned ham, groceries and small gifts for a needy family of six at Christmas.

Plans were made to attend South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi Christmas party on December 10 at Higgins Brickyard and the chapter Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Richard Evans on December 17.

Members present were Mesdames Bill Crow, Don Fisher, Richard Evans, Raymond Millhouse, William Raines, John Shriver, John Wise, Carl Andrews, and Miss Blanche Wright.

Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hughes, 4730 Cadison ave., will celebrate their fifth wedding anniversary on Saturday evening at the Polynesian restaurant.
