

"ST. GEORGE AND THE DRAGON" won the sweepstakes award in the annual Homecoming parade sponsored by El Camino College Thanksgiving Day. Designed and constructed by the Xi Iota Chi fraternity, the float was one of 15 entered by campus organizations. It featured St. George, mounted on a charging horse, and a dragon which erupted smoke periodically.

Stores Lead in Shell Co. in League

All local bowling fans are reminded that the Torrance Bowl-Drome will be closed Christmas Eve in order that employees may spend the holiday evening with their families.

But for those who want to try out new bowling balls and other bowling equipment left under the tree by St. Nick, the lanes will be open Christmas Day, starting at 10 a.m.

League news from the local bowling emporium shows the leadhides leading the Cement-hides by 1 1/2 games in the Pittsburgh Plate Glass co. league. J. Hester has the men's series honors with a 653, while A. Jackson tallied 635 for the J. Chase has high game of 260 trailed by K. Croen's 233.

In the Shell Chemical mixed league, there's a tie for men's series season high with both H. Findley and R. Baumwart tabbing a 591. D. Eza has ladies' series with her 526. In a closely fought match, the Stores are only one-half game in front of Tryon's Lions in the league.

Larkin's Larks are one game out in front of the Spoilers in the North American mixed five. Men's season series honors are held by E. Valle with a tremendous 662 trailed by C. Smith, who rolled a sparkling 627 for the women.
