

Marina District Juniors Active in Many Fields

Marina District Juniors are active in their own localities as well as keeping up with California Federation duties. Four members will attend the state board meeting on January 24-25 at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel.

Mrs. B. D. Reece, Marina District president, is also a member of the resolutions committee. Mrs. Rome Hinkston, Marina District Parliamentarian and Mrs. W. M. Darling, State Youth Chairman will serve on the nominating committee. This committee will study endorsements of candidates submitted by clubs and districts to comprise the elective slate presented to the membership at the state convention.

Mrs. Paul Yates, State International Affairs Chairman and past District Dean of Chairmen will also attend.

Mrs. Robert Lunche, Monterey Park State International Hostess, recently invited Mrs. B. D. Reece to act as hostess to Dr. Percy Buzaglio from Lima, Peru. Dr. Buzaglio is a Professor of law and a guest of the State Department, traveling to New York, Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles; visiting various universities to study their techniques. When Mrs. Reece discovered that it was Dr. Buzaglio's birthday she invited Mrs. Reece's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel T. Goetz to share a surprise birthday buffet and cake.

California Juniors, such as Mrs. Reece, are participating in

Local Women Attend Council

On January 17, sixty-nine councils in the Southern California-Southern Nevada Area, participated in the 24th Annual meeting of the Council of United Church Women. Mrs. M. M. Schwab, president, and fourteen other women from the Torrance-Lomita Council attended the meeting held at the Claremont Community church, in Claremont.

The morning address: "Can Christians Communicate in a Divided World?" was given by Dr. Harold G. Jones, pastor of host church. With Mrs. Jones,

YWCA Membership Drive Luncheon Set for Monday

Mrs. C. R. Halfpenny, representing the San Pedro Branch of the Harbor Area YWCA is the first to secure 10 Y's women who will head up the competing "Crews" in the race to the stars. Mrs. E. C. Spires, president and general chairman, reports here today.

Y's women working through the San Pedro Branch will be: Mrs. Earl Roath, Mrs. Floyd Latham, Mrs. Jean Stewart, Mrs. Marion Young, Mrs. Larry Lightner, Miss Catherine J. Lockett, Mrs. Marian L. Sampson, Mrs. Leonard Thompson, Mrs. W. Madison Taylor, and Mrs. Alfred Jorgensen.

Mrs. J. A. Henard reports Mrs. Harold Larmer, Mrs. Loraine Harper, Mrs. Arthur Kent, and Mrs. Jean Hagler, as Y's Women for Wilmington.

Mrs. Albert Isen, honorary chairman and Mrs. P. M. Crossman, chairman for Torrance report that Mrs. Richard N. Leantz, and Mrs. Thomas Westfall will work in that area.

In addition Mrs. Floyd Latham in addition Mrs. Floyd Latham is heading up a group of Headquarters clerical volunteers assisted by Mrs. Larry Lightner, Mrs. Earl Roath, and Mrs. Owen Pharr.

The enrollment will be launched on Monday, January 27, at a luncheon at the Jump N Jack Restaurant, 2900 Pacific Coast Highway with the theme "Space for you—a place for you—Join the YWCA". A goal of 1200 members is anticipated before noon February 10. Minimum membership in the Young Women's Christian Association is $2.00 per year for adults, and $50 for teen-agers.

The enrollment is aimed at gaining members who wish to be aligned with a world-wide organization working for peace, who wish to support the things for which the YWCA stands as well as those who wish to participate in clubs and classes and who wish to serve as volunteers.

"In the YWCA", Mrs. Spires states, "members take part in developing the life of the Association through the democratic process of shared responsibility and cooperative effort. Through group experience, opportunities are provided for individuals to grow and become responsible leaders and citizens. Significance is given both to the way in which people are related to each other and to those values in their common experience which reflect the religious purpose and insights of the Association."

TIME CHANGE

The time of the services at the Walteria Community Methodist church and school have been changed recently. Church school for all ages is held now at 9:30 a.m. with the church services at 11. Nursery care is provided at the 11 a.m. service. The sermon topic for the month of February will be Old Commands and New Freedoms on the Ten Commandments and Beatitudes.

Card Party

St. Margaret Mary's Guild will hold a card party at the parish hall, 25755 Eshelman ave. Lomita, on January 23, 8 p.m.

Our Lady of Rosary Guild will hostess the affair with Prefect Mrs. Thelma Bourassa and members of the Guild serving refreshments.

"Penny for your Thoughts." And many think of Penny Phillips at El Camino College, where the talented coed served as a song queen and Homecoming princess this semester. Currently the theater arts major enacts a leading role in the production of "My Three Angels," which will play in the Campus Theater January 24 and 25.

Penny Phillips Has Role In 'My Three Angels'

Torrance High School's Actress of the Year for 1956, Penny Phillips, continues her theatrical career with the role of Marie Louise Ducotel, ingenue in "My Three Angels" which plays at the El Camino Campus Theater at 8:30 Friday and Saturday nights.

Miss Phillips won her award for her portrayal of the title role in the senior class play, "Time Out For Ginger." She also played in a production of her own writing, "One Will Have Sorrow," and appeared in the high school variety show. With the Palos Verdes Players, she played Barbara in "January Thaw."

Campus Theater audiences saw Penny as Helen in the 1957 production of "Wonderful Town" and as Yum Yum in "The Mikado." She was recently honored as one of the two princesses at El Camino's Homecoming celebration.

The part of Marie Louise, played by Joan Chandler, in the successful New York production of "My Three Angels" is a pivotal one in the play. It is compassion for her plight, in having been jilted by an unfeeling scoundrel, that motivates the three convicts in their murderous rearrangement of the affairs of Marie Louise and her family.

Marie Louise presents to an actress the perennial problem of the ingenue—how to play her and still keep her a human being. The authors, Sam and Bella Spewack have been helpful in that they have made Marie Louise more nearly human than the typical ingenue. Sweet and Jack Benson putts as Mr. Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Melville look on. The Melvilles were guests of the Bensons during their stay here. Mr. Benson is an official of Borrego Valley Associates.

Madrona PTA

The Madrona PTA Association meeting was held Thursday at the Madrona Avenue school cafeteria. Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh, president, presided. The Flag ceremony was led by Girl Scout troop 635 under the leadership of Mrs. Harold Hays. Also present were Brownie Troop 707 under the leadership of Mrs. William McDade and Brownie Troop 404 under the leadership of Mrs. John Beahan. Mrs. A. U. Turner was elected to be the representative for the Council Nominative for the Council. An interesting program followed the business meeting with a Health Sketch by the third grade classes of Mrs. Lunetta Friedemann and Mrs. Edna Aronsons room. Students from Mrs. Don Ronnie and Mr. Roy Adamson's rooms gave interesting Health Demonstrations and Food Experiments.

Mrs. Milton Sippel, American Field Service Representative brought our Foreign Exchange Students: Miss Nadia Basnadjan of Greece, Miss Lucienne Eishout of Belgium, and Miss Mary Sippel, the student the American Field Service sent to Finland last year. They gave very interesting speeches on life in their native countries and what they thought of our country.

The next Association meeting will be February 13, with the theme being "Past, Present, and Future. There will be a Founders' Day program, life membership award and special music helpless she is, but still very human.
