What can we do to help straighten them out before they become involved.

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

Submitted by Young Women's Christian Association

The Young Women's Christian Association, through its 102 year history, has offered to youth an opportunity for service, and for deepening spiritual growth. The Y-Teen Purpose is stated thus:

To grow as a person;

To grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, nationalities; To grow in knowledge and love of God.

The YWCA does not attempt simply to sweep the streets of the rowdy and ill-behaved and set them at busy work or offer them extensive recreational facilities. Membership in a Y-Teen club is open to any girl of high-school age who share a concern for the Purpose and an interest in its implementation. The YWCA in Torrance can offer little in the way of material and facilities to its young members. How, then, can one explain the phenomenal growth of the Y-Teen program; the numerous service projects by Y-Teens; the Y-Teen dances are rated the best in Torrance; that parents have confidence in the Association?

The answer is really a simple one. The YWCA is a membership organization and, as such, each member feels a direct responsibility for the reputation of the organization and for the fulfillment of it Purpose. The Y expects its Y-Teen members to accept direct responsibility for planning their own activities. Adult help and advice is always available, and the development of leadership in youth through freedom to make its own decisions, within the broad framework of Association policy, is considered of paramount importance. Y-Teens are encouraged to develop their activities around program areas which include Health and Recreation, Religion, Service, Careers, Social Responsibility and Personal Relations. By participation in group activities and following parliamentary procedure, each girl has a chance to develop qualities of leadership and to contribute her own individual skills for the good of all.

There'are in the U. S., 400,000 Y-Teen members. Surely young people such as these, with high ideas and chance to develop responsibility and self-discipline cannot be other than a force for good in their communities and the country as a whole.
