Boat Damaged By Vandalism

Dry land provided the backdrop for the greatest naval engagement since World War II. Henry Brown, of 12944 Catalina complained to Torrance police Sunday that damage had been inflicted on his 45-foot cabin cruiser by young vandals who peppered it with BB shot and arrows.

The boat owner said that the hull had been dented and a cabin window smashed by the attackers. His boat is stored at 2091 W. 166th st. He estimated damage to the broken window at $25.
