Letters to the Editor
Dear Editor,
I was amused reading your comment on the suggestion how the Country could raise 30 billions annually with traffic fines, but—as you know—it did not work. Too many people would have been involved in paying these fines for speeding in the 25MPH zones, so that Los Angeles recently simply changed the respective zones into 35MPH zones. Therefore no more fines from speeding. Other cities will follow very soon.
I am only afraid that a similar solution would be found also with drunken drivers, because very many people who like liquor are aroused about the fact that the traffic Police is recent-ly a little more strict with drunken drivers. But their number is so great and powerful and rising daily that I will not be surprised, if one fine morning the newspaper will bring the news about a new regulation stating that it has been proven that drivers who drink before driving are much more alert against traffic accidents than others, so that it will be made compulsory to have 5 glasses of beer or 2 highballs before boarding one's car . . .

Sincerely yours,
ADOLPH CREST

YW Membership Ranks Swelled
Six hundred and seventy-one members joined the Harbor Area YWCA during the 1958 enrollment. Mrs. E. C. Spies, president of the board of directors, reported today.
High teams in the contest were those led by Mrs. Loraine Harper, Mrs. Jean Hagler, and Mrs. Arthur Kent, Catherine J. Lockett and Mrs. Marion Young, while the Castlettes Y-Teen Club won top honors among the teenage groups participating.
Mrs. Edith Mahony received recognition for being the individual who turned in the most membership having secured 53. New members of the association in Torrance will be presented at the annual meeting of the branch on Tuesday, April 1.

Local Youth in Play
When Alladin and the Wonderful Lamp is presented March 1 at the Dana Junior High School, San Pedro, under the sponsorship of the Peninsula committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, three Torrance people will be in the cast.
Lois Wright, 17, of 456 E. 220th St., plays the principal character Scheherazade. She is a member of the production staff of the School of the Theater, Long Beach, and attends Marymount School on the Palos Verdes Peninsula.
In this version, Alladin is aided by a wonderful camel, Nupshed, portrayed by Barbara Bennett and Richard French, both of Torrance. Eldridge Walker, director of the School of the Theater, Long Beach, lives in Lomita. He has been associated with the Peninsula committee's children's plays for 1956 and '57. Choreography is being handled by the Betty Vee dance studio of San Pedro.
Although he now lives in Norwalk, Cotton intends to establish his home in Torrance in the near future.

Ask More Space For Recreation Board Classes

Although it moved into the new City Hall less than a year ago, the Torrance Recreation Department now wants to move part of its activities back into the old city hall.
The department wants to use the engineering department of the old city hall for children's and women's arts and crafts classes, because it is running out of space at existing meeting places.
