Juvenile Delinquency Is EVERYBODY'S PROBLEM

We hope that this page will serve as an "OPEN FORUM" for the people of our communities. We are inviting you to write letters which will be published on this page. The alarming rise in juvenile delinquency can be stemmed. So let us talk it over through the columns of this paper. Just sit down and write a letter. What is your idea? We all love these youngsters. What can we do to help straighten them out before they become involved.

This is your "OPEN FORUM"

The opinions expressed in the letter and editorials are not necessarily the opinion of the Torrance Press nor of the sponsors who have made this page possible.

AN OPEN LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE FBI:

By J. EDGAR HOOVER

Warning to U. S. Teen-Agers

Don't invite trouble! Here are 10 rules that every parent should make sure his youngster knows

1. If any stranger-or even a slight acquaintance-makes improper advances, tell your parents immediately.

Young people are too often kind-heatred about such things—they dislike the idea of getting an offender into "trouble." Just remember that it you don't report him, the II probably get into worse trouble later on-to say nothing of the harm he may cause.

2. If you know of any pornographic pictures or literature being passed around, notify your parents immediately.

Obscene reading matter is a favorite habit of the degenerate. If the authorities can run down the source and trace the material, they may be able to rid the community of danger before it starts.

3. Know your date! Don't go out on "blind dates" unless another couple is along—and even then be cautious. If someone phones and says he's a friend of Jack Jones, tell him you'd be glad to have Jack Jones introduce him.

4. Stay out of "Lovers' Lanes."

It's natural to want to be alone with your date, but experience shows that "Lovers' Lanes" are favorite haunts of sex criminals.

5. Don't wander away alone from the crowd at picnics and outings. Stay within calling distance. Sex criminals are easily attracted to any group of young people, and given an opportunity they can strike with frightening speed.

6. Don't ask for trouble-dress sensibly.

Provocative clothing may attract the attention of a potential sex

7. Be civil to strangers who ask directions, but never go part way with

The "directions" trick is a favorite amony sex criminals. They count on the natural helpfulness of young people.

8. Be very careful about accepting work from a stranger.

This is another insidious dodge. Always make sure that the person is a respectable businessman.

9. Don't go about the house half-dressed.

This may seem harmless, but it's an invitation to "Peeping Toms"who may later become something more dangerous.

10. Never, never hitchhike!

And never, never pick up a hitchhiker!
