Alpha Gammas Vote on New Philanthropies

South Bay Alpha' Gamma Deltas elected officers, planned for their international reunion Day at the Ambassador Hotel, April 19th, and voted to buy a violin for a special class at Harlan Shoemaker School for Cerebrial Palsied children, when they met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. W. G. Dickman, 1004 Via Nogales, Palos Verdes.

Officers elected are Mrs. Owen Goodman, president; Mrs. Alfred Geyer', vice president; Mrs. John Hauerwaas, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Duane Enochs, recording secretary; Mrs. Edward Greenblatt, treasurer; Mrs. W. F. Smith, editor; Mrs. James Post, philanthropic chairman.

The group also decided to become associates of the Orthope dic Wing at Harbor General Hospital, appointing representatives to help in any way possible, and to give donations where needed.

Garden Clubbers Discuss Color Shade Gardens

St. Patrick's Day colors were used to decorate McMasters Hall Tuesday night, when members of the North Torrace Branch of the California Fushia Society met for their scheduled talk by Gordon Baker Lloyd.

Because of Lloyd's illness, Mrs J. W. Jensen of the Jensen Be zonia Gardens acted as substitute speaker. She soon won he audience with her timely talk "Color in Shade Gardens." She also touched on the effects to be achieved by planning for contin uous bloom using inexpensive plants of easy culture. During the question and answer period she brought out that now wa the time to spray against garden pests, mildew and scale.

Among the guests were Mr and Mrs. William Taylor, presi dent of the California National Fuchsia Society, and Joe Tay lor, president of the Gardena branch who is the chairman for the coming Shade Plant Show to be held in June at the Long Beach Auditorium.

Program director, Mrs. Frank Hinkel, announced that an East er bonnett parade, with real flowers used for hat decorations. would be held at the April meeting. Easter decorations will also be featured and Kenny Yyeda will be the speaker of the eve-
