Pontiac Dealer Joins GM Safety Inspection Drive

Bob Beaver Pontiac, 931 Pacific Coast Highway, Hermosa Beach, is participating in the "Aim to Live" safety campaign, by offering free headlight inspections.

Bob Beaver, president of the auto agency, one of the newest serving the Torrance-South Bay area, said that his firm is taking a full part in the safety drive sponsored by General Motors.

The Pontiac agency is also offering special prices on new, used cars as well as in the service department.

Beaver, who has been in business in Los Angeles for 15 years, stressed that all his service personnel is factory trained and his equipment is of the highest quality, assuring the finest of workmanship.

"Our reputation is second to none," Beaver said. He came to Los Angeles as a youngster and played football at a local school, before attending UCLA.

He is married and has two children, Robert, Jr., 19, and Caron, 13. Beaver is a member of the Rotary Club.

Resident Wins Radio Contest

F. H. Frohnhoefer of 1116 Hickory, Torrance, is the winner of an evening for two at the Hollywood Moulin Rouge in the "Mystery Sound" contest being conducted by radio station KBIG.

For being among the first to identify correctly the sound of a purse being opened and closed which KBIG broadcasts hourly, Frohnhoefer will be the guest of the Catalina station at dinner, dancing and floor show in the famed theater restaurant.

Blind Men Speak At Lions Club

Torrance Lions Club members heard two speakers from Braille Institute, Los Angeles, at a lunch meeting Tuesday in the Palms Cafe, 1925 West Carson street.

Dr. Robert Barrett, program chairman, says the meeting marked the annual drive of the club to raise funds for the blind's benefit, one of the club's regular projects.

One speaker was Edwin L. Sorrells, vocational rehabilitation director of the Institute who

Stephen M. White

By Mrs. H. T. Runge
Stephen M. White PTA's first ways and means project for this year was a Spaghetti Dinner. It was reported very successful considering the rain storm. Music was provided by the Mixed Choir under the direction of Mr. Fred Wilkins. Girls from the student council helped serve.

The students provided 54 exhibits for Stephen M. White's first Hobby Show.

He talked on new methods to train the blind.

The other was William Wilson, who prior to losing his vision was a branch manager for the Oregon Motor Vehicle Department.

College Landscape Artists Hold Show to Finance Paint Materials

Water color landscapes by El Camino College students are being shown this week in the Manhattan Beach public library and will remain on display through April 11, it was announced today by Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction at El Camino.

Students whose work is being featured are enrolled in classes of Instructor Donald C. Green.

The two dozen canvases were painted by members of Green's Saturday morning advanced landscape class. Instruction stresses landscape in composition both realistically and abstractly.

The class assemblies at 8 a.m. for a four hour work period at a spot designated by Green, which may be the railroad depot at Inglewood, the docks at Wilmington, or a view of the sea at Palos Verdes.

"I select a variety of places," said Green, "to give the class opportunity to try different types of landscapes. When the class meets, the problem is presented, and each member paints his solution."

"At 11 o'clock the entire class gathers for criticism of the morning's work, and also to look at work executed or finished during the week. This class offers two units of college credit."

"Many students in the class offer their work for sale, to buy new colors or a desired brush. Since the students use a fine and expensive grade of paper as well as the best water color paints, a minimum price of $10 has been set for each painting. A student may ask more for a painting of which he is especially fond."

The Manhattan Beach Library is open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Students whose work is exhibited include Marian Armstrong, Dorothy Glasgow and John Connors, Inglewood; Dorothy Ashley, Alma Lauridsen and James Payne, Torrance; Dan Grippio, Larry Hayward, Jerry Jackson, Herb Johnson and James Rosillo, Redondo Beach, and Haleen Wishard, Gardena.

NEW RAIN STORM
Another inch of rain in the latest storm brought the rainfall for Torrance to 19.67 inches for the season. This compares with 8.46 for the same period last year.

What's the visual range of your job? From close-up to 30 inches? From reading range to beyond arm's length? If you wear glasses, it is imperative that visual corrections match your working pattern. Otherwise, eyestrain is inevitable. Let us make a "working area analysis" of your job. From this data, lenses can be ground in our own laboratories to provide exactly the corrections you need.
