Mayor Isen Hopes for Large Turnout at Polls in Election

Mayor Albert Isen toady issued an appeal to residents of Torrance to indicate an interest in their municipal government by recording the highest turn out of voters at the election on Tuesday

"If the candidates elected on Tuesday, are to be truly representatives of the people of this city, they must be elected by a substantial majority of the registered voters of this community. Anything less than a substantial majority," continued the Mayor, "would indicate a lack of interest on the part of our citizens," and certainly would indicate to the elected city ofcial that he was representing only a part of the people in Tor-

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many citizens of our city who worked so hard for their candidates, because I feel that they are making a substantial contribution to good municipal government. The workers have laid the groundwork for next Tuesday's voters. It is now up to the individual voter, to digest the reams of political literature he or she has received, the many words he or she has read in the public press, and the countless speeches heard during the past few weeks," the mayor said.

"The decision is now yours. Please use this responsibility
