Ever yearn to go flying off "into the wild blue yonder"? You can do it, you know, by taking flying lessons at Vern Flying, Inc., 3301 Pacific Coast Hwy. at the Torrance Airport. Vern Skaggs, president, started his business four years ago with one plane, teaching flying part time. He has a staff of five, now, four are instructors, and has five planes for instruction. Flight instruction is available for private, multi-engine, and commercial flying. Training is complete including instrument training. Classes are held seven days a week, and Thursday evenings. Vern Flying, Inc. is now the dealer in this area for Mooney Aircraft which manufactures a fast, four place plane. The '58 Mooney Mark 20A is used for Vern's fast charter service. In addition to these services, Vern's also does complete motor overhauling, aerial photography, and mosquito control work. For more information call DA. 6-4864, or go directly to Vern Flying, Inc., 3301 Pacific Coast Hwy.
