> Damage Caused To Homes of City Officials

Homes of two city officials were damaged Wednesday when water main was ruptured on Madrona ave. Landscaping, which had been completed only the day before was destroyed in the front yard of City Manager George Stevens, of 20615 Madrona ave. His neighbor, Doug Horlander, public works department inspector, suffered more serious loss. Water seeped into his home at 20601 Madrona ave., causing loss to carpets and furniture, as well as landscaping. The main was ripped open during ditch-digging work on a
