Kindergarten Tea at Carl Steele

The present kindergarten mothers were hostesses at the pre-school tea given May 16, for parents of fall kindergarten pupils of Carl Steele School.

Mrs. Robert E. Walker, pre-school chairman, welcomed the group, led the pledge of allegiance and introduced the "Steele Belles."

Under direction of Mrs. Lorman Griffith, they sang four selections, accompanied by Mrs. Eddie Clark: "Be Kind to Your Parents," "No Man Is an Island," "Let All My Life Be Music," and "Let's Dance."

Members of the "Steele Belles" are Mmes. Griffith, Clark, Ray Bonawitz, Alan Cooper, Joe Songy, Earl Barackman, Garrett Mc. Cown, Jerrold Doyle, Harold Armes, Loren Scheele, Jerry Madden, William Sparks, John Huback, Kenneth Munson, Leo Fischer.

Mrs. Walker introduced Mrs. Kenneth McVey, Torrance Council PTA president-elect; Mrs. A. D. Hawkins, president of the Carl Steele PTA; Mrs. Thomas Greene, president-elect; and R. K. Petrat, principal. Petrat introduced teachers Clapsadle, Denton Skelton, Carpenter and Mrs. Denmarsh, curriculum coordinator.

A film "The Kindergarten Way" was shown. A question and answer session followed. Hostesses were Mmes. Robert E. Walker, chairman; John Westling, Richard Wurm, David Allen, Harlan Judge, Jerry Woodard, Leo Fischer, John Huback, S. D. Teigland and Henry Rix.

Sponsor Bazaar
Friendship Circle of Torrance Royal Neighbors sponsored a successful public bazaar and rummage sale Tuesday afternoon in the Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia ave.

Mrs. Rosy Shepherd was general chairman and Mrs. Della Moon was in charge of the fancy work.

A public card party was held that evening with prizes awarded for high scores and a door prize. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Opal Hoy's committee.

Attend Movies
Members of Brownie Troop 216 under the supervision of their leader, Mrs. Mills, and parents, Messrs. and Mmes. Wilson, and Moore and Mrs. Well saw "This Is Cinerama" May 17. They previously attended a showing of "Around the World in 80 Days."

Girls attending were Kathy Garrison, Terry and Gwen Mills, Cheryl and Jennel Moore, Linda Rodriguez, Carla Edwards, Connie Brannon, Evelyn Wilson, Audrey Well and Mary Jane Snee.

Riviera Garden Club Entertains at Sunday Afternoon Silver Tea

A lovely social event of the season was the Riviera Garden Club's Silver Tea served Sunday afternoon, May 25, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lundquist, 5409 Calle de Ricardo, Palos Verdes Riviera, Torrance.

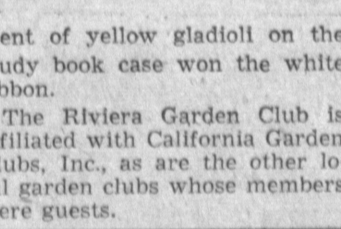

Over 100 guests were greeted with dainty pink lily of the valley name tags handmade by members of the club. Honor guests and club officers were presented glamorica corsages, also made by club members.

Assisting Mrs. Lundquist as hostesses were Mrs. Merrill Peavy and Mrs. Donald Leonard, tea co-chairmen; Mrs. Bryce Fonville and Mrs. Melburn Spaulding, club president and treasurer; and Mmes. Robert Bogardus, Lawrence Murdock, and John Speight. Pouring at the formal lace over aqua candlelit tea table were Mrs. Bryce Fonville and Mrs. John Alexander, Riviera Club president and secretary; Mrs. R. O. Young, district director; Mrs. Eldon Sellmeyer of the Green Thumbers' Garden Club; Mrs. James Dawson and Mrs. Martin Nielson of the San Pedro Garden Club.

Table Arrangement
A beautiful circular floral arrangement of pink gladioli, pink garnet roses, blue delphinium and candy tuft was donated for the tea table by Walteria Flower Shop. Other floral arrangements throughout the elegantly decorated home were made for assigned spots by the club members. These 19 arrangements were judged by Mmes. Bradley Young, Ralph Lindsey and Thomas de Chambeau of Manhattan Beach on points of design, color and condition.

Two arrangements in the formal French Provincial living room won awards: the blue ribbon to Mrs. Merrill Peavy for her end of the piano arrangement; a crescent of red garnet roses in an antique silver egg boiler, and to Mrs. Melburn Spaulding the yellow ribbon for her creative passion flower with natural foliage driftwood arrangement on the coffee table. The red ribbon was awarded to Mrs. Thomas Kasabali's striking Hogarth curve arrangement of aqua and pink shasta daisies. This arrangement carried out the wallpaper design in the pink "jeweled butterfly" bathroom. Mrs. Elmer Tunturi's and Mrs. Robert Younkin's mass arrange-
