Lionettes Plan Coming Events

Three South Torrance Lionettes members, Mmes. David Tanner, president; Jack Stephens, secretary, and E. Perkins, arrived at the May 27 monthly business luncheon in Wayfarer's Inn gaily bedecked in originally trimmed hats purchased at Catalina during the recent Lions convention. Mrs. Perkins gave a convention report and suggested a larger local attendance next year.

To Attend Luncheon

An invitation from the Welteria Business Women's Club to their luncheon to be held the evening of June 17 in the Polynesian, was accepted as the club's social event for the month. A fashion show will be one of the highlights. Mrs. Ruth Griffin, who is presenting the show, was a guest at the luncheon meeting, reporting on her plans and searching for a possible additional model from Lionettes.

To be definitely arranged at a later date, Lionettes will give a beach party for their husbands and children in July.

Attending the luncheon were Mmes. Herbert Farris, Warren Hamilton, Bert Levy, Richard Landauer, A. E. Perkins, Jack Stephens, David Tanner, John Wallace. Guests for the day were Mrs. Ruth Griffin, guest of Mrs. Levy; Mrs. Evelyn Plank, guest of Mrs. Landauer, and Mrs. Robert Bartz, guest of Mrs. Wallace.

Next business luncheon meeting will be held June 23 at the Candle Room.

Sorority Plans Family Picnic

Last regular meeting of the year was held by members of Lambda Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi May 28 in the home of their president, Marilyn Vincent.

Those attending were Mmes. Edith Herd, Grace Phinizy, Eunice Tent, Jo Boal, Eleanor Weir, Fran Nichols, Marilyn Vincent, Helen Condit, Joan Patterson and guests Mary Boardman and Jane Dougherty.

The social program for the summer was planned and it was decided to have a Father's Day picnic June 15 in Centinela Park from 1-5 p.m.

Guild Installs New Officers

Installation of newly elected officers featured the first annual meeting of Bay-Harbor Osteopathic Hospital Guild June 7 at 7:30 p.m. The installation dinner-dance was held at the Redondo Beach Elks Lodge, according to Mrs. John Rados, who has headed the guild group since its organization a year ago.

New officers include Mrs. Charles F. Crawford of San Pedro, president; Mrs. Van B. Lisman of San Pedro, vice president; Mrs. Elver White of Wilmington, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert L. West of Long Beach, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. G. F. Lorge of San Pedro, treasurer.

Installing officers were Mrs. Otto Frantich of Gardena, past president of Bay-Harbor Osteopathic Auxiliary, and Mrs. G. F. Quiros of Redondo Beach.

Introduction of the 12 members of the board of directors of the guild and announcement of committee chairmen to serve during the coming year was made by the new president.

Mrs. John Covy of Gardena was in charge of reservations and dinner arrangements. Mrs. E. J. Benson of Redondo Beach headed the hostess committee.

Cancer Chapter Meets Thursday

Next meeting of the Anna Grancell Heart and Cancer Chapter of Mount Sinai Hospital and Clinic takes place Thursday, June 12, at 8 p.m. in the social hall of Temple Menorah, 112 1/2 S. Catalina, Redondo Beach.

Mmes. Jack Schakne and Harry Cole, program chairmen, are arranging a program of interest and entertainment to follow the short business session, according to President Mrs. Charles Davis.

Gamma Phi Betas Meet Wednesday

Gamma Phi Beta alumnae of the South Bay area will hold their monthly meeting Wednesday at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Raymond G. Lewand, 19808 Halston pl. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Thomas Day, Palos Verdes Riviera.

Plans for the 48th Gamma Phi Beta international convention at the Empress Hotel, Victoria, B.C., will be presented by Mrs. Hugo W. Jones, Manhattan Beach, president.

Feature of the evening will be a showing of Jana Fashions by Miss Mary Lou Whalen, with members of the group acting as models. The fashions include summer vacation and play clothes and a preview of advance fall designs.

New members in the area are invited to call Mrs. Thomas Day, FR 8-1646, for reservations and information.

Beachnuts Sponsor New Square Dance Club

The Beachnuts Square Dance Club is sponsoring a new adult beginner class in square dancing starting Monday, June 16, at Knolls Lodge recreation hall, 23701 S. Western ave. Dancing will be from 7:30-10:30 p.m. with Ken Collins as caller-teacher. Additional information may be obtained by calling DA 6-9376.

Betsy Ross Club

The Betsy Ross Club of Torrance OES will meet June 17 at the Torrance Masonic Temple. A business meeting will start at 10 a.m. following which members will leave for a visit to Southern California Gas Co. in Redondo.

The company will serve a dessert luncheon followed by a demonstration talk.

Officers of the club are anxious to have at least 40 attending and will arrange for any needed transportation.

A card party will conclude the day's program.

Luncheon Fees to Puppet Fund

A "Pinkie" luncheon for Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. William Baker Smith, 904 Esplanada, Redondo Beach. Mrs. Baker prepared cocktails to precede the luncheon for which hot dishes were provided by Mmes. William Boydwell, John Beeman, Don Hyde, Don Laselle, John Stevens and Walter Wols.

Desserts were prepared by Mmes. James Kimball, J. E. Popovich, Robin Bingham and William Baker Smith.

Mrs. Smith also donated a door prize.

Luncheon was served from a table covered with pink tablecloth and centered with a silver bowl of pink carnations surrounded by tiny "Pinkie" puppets such as those made by the members for presentation to each pediatric patient.

Proceeds collected by Mrs. Marion Betz from the 40 attending the luncheon will go to the fund for materials for the Pinkie puppets.
