Ray Southstone Becomes Third ECC Grad to Return as Mentor in College

"Train 'em and retain 'em." That's the slogan used by professional athletic teams to build a strong foundation for the future, and presently it seems to be El Camino's key to sports success.

The recent addition of Ray Southstone, track tutor, to the Warrior coaching scene marks the return of the third home-grown product to the alma mater as an instructor in athletics.

During his two year stay at Warriorville Jurk proved one of the toughest linemen in the college's history, receiving the lineman of the year award for the 1950 season.
