Wayne Thompson has been appointed assistant to the vice president of manufacturing at Horkey-Moore Associates, Torrance, Joseph Moore, vice president-manufacturing, announced today. Thompson will assist Moore in production and testing of new aircraft and missile components.

Prior to his new appointment, Thompson, a veteran of nearly 20 years in key aircraft industry positions, was a test supervisor for Torrance engineering company. Before that he was plant superintendent at Pastushin Aviation Corp. for one year, and started his aircraft career at Douglas Aircraft Co., where he

Service Road
Protest Aired

Protest against a private road opening into a cul-de-sac street, was referred to the public works department Tuesday by city council which received a petition.

Theo Linhart Jr., 4801 Via El Sereno, said that he and other residents purchased their property because it was on a dead-end street. They object that the service road was built by the subdivider, and claim that it constitutes a traffic hazard to children and has become a rubbish collection spot.

spent more than 10 years in supervisory positions.

EXTRA FANCY

You've never seen such elegant tomatoes. They're extra, extra-fancy... red and ripe for slicing. Make them your primer salad vegetable for all your lunches and dinner salads this week. You'll wonder about Food Giant's low, low price... but don't think for a moment we've sacrificed quality. See for yourself.

YES— If you live in the Torrance area, your floor plan will require approximately 48 square yards of carpeting.

NOT— 33 1/3 or 40 square yards that so many stores advertise as being average. Baker's advertises a price that is realistic. That is, a price including carpeting, labor, 40-ounce padding and chrome door metal stripping for 48 square yards which is about your required yardage.
