Camping Attracts Many Local Girls

This summer will be a long remembered one for many YWCA teens who are attending YWCA Camp Tahquitz Meadows. Memories of typical camp programs of hiking along nature trails, cook-outs, horseback riding, crafts, games of volleyball, tennis, and baseball, archery practice, swimming, campfires, and worship will remain long after summer is gone.

To some, this has been a first time away from home. To others, who must help take care of large families while the mother works this has been a rare chance for recreation.

For all it has been an opportunity to meet and know girls from other towns, girls with different backgrounds from their own. It has been an experience of working, playing and living together.

Local girls who are attending camp this period and the next are: Doretta Boyd, Dorothy Carter, Bonnie Davis, Barbara Dolan, Ernestine Estrada, Dian Hasson, Leslie Hecht, Janet Hermann, Carolyn Huntoon, Mary Rounds, Donna Scholes, Margaret Stone, Virginia Strickland, Lella Timmons, Kathy Wiley, and Judy Wixon.

Seemans Entertain Guest

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seeman, 1502 W. 218th st., have been entertaining Mrs. Seeman's mother, Mrs. Louise Bergstrom, 86, and her sister, Miss Alice Bergstrom of Rockford, Illinois. The guests flew here June 28 and will be leaving for home Saturday. Miss Bergstrom accompanied her hostess to Las Vegas while here and also visited Disneyland.
