El Camino Summer Program in Record Enrollment, See 10,000 at Fall Term

With summer enrollment at Elseling on July 21 in the counseling office, located in the College Administration Building at 16007 S. Crenshaw Blvd. Sloan announced today.

Approaching its twelfth year, the college is preparing for an 11,000 enrollment for the fall; spring registration hit a peak of 9600.

Previous high in summer enrollment was 500 less than the current pace-setting mark, Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, announced today.

In opening for the fall semester, the college will be under the direction of its second president, Dr. Stuart E. Marsee, who will assume that post officially on August 1. During the month of July, Dr. Marsee is serving on campus in the capacity of Associate Superintendent of the El Camino Junior College District.

Students planning to register for full programs will be enabled to make appointments for coun-
