

Problem Solving Is Sermon Topic

Thousands of people have only one way to solve a problem—ignore it, and maybe it will go away! We know this method does not solve anything. It only causes the problem to grow bigger, until it has reached overwhelming proportions.

We know that every problem has an answer.

Five ways to arrive at this answer will be explored this Sunday by Dr. Earl D. Barnum at the regular 11 a.m. devotional services of the Redondo-Torrance Church of Religious Science.

The church office is open daily, except Saturday or after the Church Hour on Sunday.

Letters to the Editor

DEAR EDITOR: October 14, 1958, looms as a most important day for several thousand citizens of tomorrow.

These several thousand children; your sons and daughters, nieces and nephews, and neighborhood friends are the leaders, producers and distributors of the next generation.

October 14, 1958 will be a day that terminates a great deal of thought. Our tomorrow's citizens are the products of today's schools.

October 14, 1958 will be a day of decision. One need say little about today's scientific, political, economic, moral, and educational crisis.

October 14, 1958 will be a day of action. Each registered Torrance voter, I trust, will cast his vote on the bond issue.

October 14, 1958 will be a day of hope. One need say little about today's scientific, political, economic, moral, and educational crisis.

October 14, 1958 will be a day of action. Each registered Torrance voter, I trust, will cast his vote on the bond issue.
