

Club Prospects Are Entertained

Prospective members of Torrance Junior Woman's Club were entertained July 30 at a "coffee" and get acquainted hour in the home of Mrs. Russell M. Clawson, 2909 Eldorado, second vice president of the club. Mrs. J. G. Laybier, president, was assistant hostess.

Attending the "coffee" were Meses. Paul G. Leack, Donald R. DeCuir, Charles F. Crandall,

Charles H. Turner, A. R. Felando Jr., and Charles W. Bennett. Each received a name card fashioned in the form of a hand-shake.

Aims and objectives of the club were discussed during the social hour.

Other prospective members will be entertained at another "coffee" to be held in late August.

Presiding at the punch bowl will be past presidents, Mrs. Mark Bennett, Mrs. Henry Rappaport, and Mrs. Sidney Siegel. Sisterhood board members will serve as hostesses. Hostesses will also include: Mrs. Edward Sokolski, Mrs. Sidney Greene, Mrs. Jack Alpert, and Mrs. Ben Kaufman.

Persons interested in attending the tea are asked to contact Mrs. Sussman at FRontier 8-1562.

Sam Brunelli of Redondo has returned to the Ferraro Accordion Studio on Post ave. following an extended vacation in Nevada.

Sorority Studies Self Appreciation

The Gamma Psi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held its monthly educational and social evening Tuesday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Dean Neidhardt, 17025 Purche. The Chapter has chosen "A Laboratory of Self Appreciation" as their educational subject for the year.

The first subject to be studied was "Personality—What is it?" which was presented by Mrs. Robert Kessenich. Mrs. Jerome Hoffman and Mrs. Dale Walker presented the second subject which was "Appearance."

Baby Shower

Mrs. Donald Jodrey was honored with a surprise baby shower during the social hour. After the gifts were opened games were played and refreshments served.

Dean Arthur Neidhardt entertained with two-accordion selections, "Witch Doctor" and "Return to Me."

The next meeting will be Aug. 12th at which time there will be a report on ticket sales for the "September Song" fashion show. This will be held at the Western Club in Gardena. Proceeds will be given to Hemophilia for research.
