Toy Gifts Accepted at Parks

Alondra and Lomita parks will be established as reception centers for the county-wide collection of toys and dolls on August 12, according to N. S. Johnson, County Director of Parks and Recreation.
The toy-doll drive is being jointly sponsored by the Toy Loan Association of Los Angeles County, the County Probation Department, the County Juvenile Hall, and the County Department of Parks and Recreation.
Persons bringing their discarded toys and dolls are asked to submit their contributions in wrapped packages, with name and address of the donor affixed.
The toys and dolls will be assigned for public use either through the 45 toy lending centers throughout the county, or at the various juvenile halls.

Beach Mayors to Join Brown Reception Group

Mayor Lee Center of Redondo Beach and Mayor Edward J. Edwards of Hermosa Beach will join the non-partisan committee welcoming Attorney General Edmund G. "Pat" Brown to the South Bay area and a Hawaiian luau on August 30th, according to an announcement released this week by Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance, general chairman of the event.
Attendance at the reception and Hawaiian luau to be presented at the Polynesian restaurant will be by reservation only, but it is open to the public. "This may be the only opportunity," said Isen, "for a representative group of voters in this area to meet 'Pat' Brown, a candidate for governor of California in the November election."
The demand for tickets to the reception has been substantial enough to prompt Mayor Isen to name additional residents of the Torrance and South Bay area to the "reservations" sub-committee. The new members are Bert Lynn, Robert Burke, Jim Thompson and Dick Floyd of Torrance; William Peake, Lomita; Eric Rafter, Hermosa Beach; and George E. Gordon, Jr., El Segundo.

Requests for reservations from the Palos Verdes and Hollywood Riviera area, according to Joseph Platt, public relations chairman, will be accepted by Trudy Owens, 46th Assembly District coordinator.

Television Store Bought by Gans, Offers Big Sale

Sid Gans announced this week that he has assumed full ownership in Chuck's Television and Appliance Store, 1409 Cravens ave., by buying out his partner, Charles Briner.
The store, which will now be known as Gans Television and Appliance, will hold a huge stock reduction sale this week offering merchandise at below dealer's cost.
Bart Tatum, the store manager, will continue on in his position under the new management. The television and radio

Harvey Opens Reduction Mill

The first independent aluminum reduction plant in the United States is in operation. Harvey Aluminum, long-time fabricator of aluminum mill products, is now starting regular production at its aluminum reduction facility at The Dalles, Oregon. The company will deliver its first commercial output in approximately 60 to 90 days, shipping primary metal in a wide range of specifications to meet any standard or special requirement. Capacity of the new smelter is more than 100,000,000 pounds of aluminum yearly.
repair service, recognized as one of the best in the South Bay area, will be continued by Gans.
