Bride Designs Gown for Wedding Saturday in Wayfarer's Chapel

Loving hands fashioned the wedding ensemble worn by Miss Linda Lane for her wedding Saturday morning to Irvin M. McVey, in Wayfarer's Chapel. Designed by the bride herself, the wedding gown and veil were made by her mother.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Lane, 1531 El Prado. Mrs. W. J. Elder of Phoenix is the groom's mother.

Bride's Original

Made of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin, the gown was styled with hipline bodice, long pointed sleeves and Queen Anne collar. The floor length skirt was fashioned in tiers of lace and tulle flowing into a short chapel train. The fingertip veil of illusion edged with French imported lace, was caught to a pearl crown tiara.

The bride carried a white satin covered Bible topped with a white orchid, ribbon streamers and white stephanotis.

Rev. Kenneth Knox officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The groom's mother wore coral lace over satin.

Malcolm Meredith served as best man and ushers were Leonard Davids, Dick Snell, and Tom Lane.

Bonnie and Becky Husted were the little flower girls.

Wedding Breakfast

A wedding breakfast followed by a reception was held at noon in the United Brethren Guild Hall.

The honeymoon trip will take the newlyweds to Carmel, San Francisco, Sequoia Park, Yosemite and a stop in Las Vegas. The new home will be at 638 Kelton ave., Westwood.

Attendants In Aqua

Mrs. Richard Harlicker wore sleeveless square necked sheath of deep aqua satin with flowing back panel of aqua chiffon fastened to a cummerbund of aqua chiffon, for her role as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Faye Hallahan and Kathie Curtis. Miss Mallahan wore a gown styled like that of the matron, but in a paler shade of aqua. Miss Curtis' gown was of very pale aqua.

The three attendants wore shoes dyed to match their gowns, white gloves and picture hats with chiffon to match their gowns, accented by an aqua rose. They carried fan shaped bouquets of aqua carnations to match the shades of their gowns, interspersed with variegated ivy.

The bride's mother wore beige cotton lace over taffeta, with matching long gloves and feather hat, and contrasting brown shoes and bag.

THS Graduate

The bride attended Torrance High School where she received an achievement award in foreign languages, and went a year to El Camino. She is currently going to UCLA where she will be a Junior this fall, majoring in Spanish. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha.

The groom attended Kansas schools and received his Bachelor of Science degree in Electronic Engineering at Kansas State University in the summer of '56. He spent two years in Japan with the US Army. He is presently employed by North American Aviation in their Rocket-dyne Division in Canoga Park.

Song Titles Tell Programs

"What's the Name of That Song?" could well be the overall title for next year's programs of Waleria P.T.A. The official board approved a list of song titles to represent each month's offerings, at their August 7 meeting in the school.

"Getting to Know You" will be the October meeting title and there will be a skit by parents and teachers in a get-acquainted program.

"The More We Get Together" represents the November meeting. Representatives of Waleria service clubs will tell of their work with youth of the community.

The annual Christmas pageant will bear the title "White Christmas."

Various hobbies will be in the limelight at the January "Whistle While You Work" program.

Annual Founders' Day program will be under the heading of "Shouldn't Auld Acquaintance Be Forgotten?"

The exchange student program in March will be called "Far Away Places."

"Music, Music, Music" will herald the April program presented by school band and orchestra.

Principal Don Mullaney will present a survey of exploratory groups in the school workshops, under the title "School Days."

Other plans of the board include the annual luncheon for teachers, September 10, the cream social, September 25, a midwinter carnival January 24, and a potluck dinner April 23.

Three officers were approved by the board to fill vacancies. They are Mrs. William Allen, historian; Mrs. William Stephens, parent education; Mrs. L. Collins, secretary and civilian defense.

Sponsor Card Party

St. Joan's Guild of St. Phomena Women's Council will sponsor a public card party Friday night in the school hall at 21900 S. Main st. Playing will start at 8 p.m. and refreshments will be served following the games.

Mrs. Joy Carroll is council prefect.

Lodge to Honor State Official

Mrs. Frassie Sprecket, president of the Rebekah assembly of California, will be an honored guest of Torrance Rebekah Lodge August 27 at a meeting in Torrance Masonic Temple. Mrs. Olive Veatch is chairman in charge.
