Band to Resume Series

The Torrance Area Youth Bands, Inc., will resume its joint Youth Band-Artist Concerts series this year. The series was temporarily interrupted this past season due to the fact the Youth Band was engaged in raising funds for its trip to Chicago, where they performed for the Mid-West National Band Clinic as part of Torrance "All America City" celebration.

The Artists Series consists of four programs, the first three given jointly by the Youth Band and internationally renowned Artists of the concert stage. The last concert, given in May, is the band's Anniversary concert. Soloists for this event will be the four winners of music competition cash scholarships. These scholarships consist of cash prizes of $100 each given to the winners of competitions in strings, voice, piano and wind instruments.

Soloists for the first two concerts for November 25 and January 8 will feature Tessa Spivakovsky, violinist, and Leonard Pennario, pianist. Negotiations are under way to obtain the featured artist for the third concert scheduled for sometime in March.

DOWN TO BUSINESS—Mrs. Carl Taylor, Harbor area headquarters chairman, goes right to work at the new Community Chest campaign headquarters, 1719 S. Pacific. "More of everything . . . pencil work, paper work and just plain hard work will be necessary if the Chest is going to make a million more this year." Mrs. Taylor explains to (left to right) Wilmington city chairman Boyd McElroy; Al Moe, San Pedro city chairman and Glen Koger, Harbor area chairman.

ART COURSE OFFERED

Registration is now being taken for two new art courses to be offered at Harbor Junior College for the fall semester according to Hazel M. Whedon, Administrative Dean at the college. Both courses will be offered in the evening and each will meet from 6:30 until 9:30.
