

Lutheran Bible School Ends

Vacation Bible School of Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182 st., ended last Sunday with two special services. Special music was provided by the Bibel School choruses.

Attending the sessions were 459 boys and girls. The teaching staff numbered 44.

Superintendent was Rose Mary Ulland, parish worker for Christ the King. Worship leaders included Mrs. Norval Thompson who was also a song leader, Mrs. J. R. Wolfe, and Mrs. Curtis Johnson.

Seven Area Boys Take First Vows

Seven graduates of the summer class of 1957 of Junipero Serra Catholic Boys' High School, Gardena, took their first profession of vows as Brothers of the Society of Mary, August 15, at Star of the Sea Parish Church in Santa Cruz. The profession followed the completion of 13 months of study at the Marianist Novitiate in Santa Cruz.

Taking vows were Brothers John McNeil, James Orsini, Torrance; Thomas Morrissey, Lawndale; Robert Pelfrey, Manhattan Beach; Gerald Devlin, Inglewood; John Wisecarver, Hawthorne; Richard Meisel, Gardena.

The new Brothers are now continuing their studies at the Marianist Scholasticate, St. Mary's College, California.

Calvary Church Announcements

"Christ in Us and We in Christ" will be the sermon subject of Rev. Harold Tuttle, principal of Calvary Baptist Elementary Day School, when he speaks Sunday at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services in Calvary Baptist Church.

Miss Charlene Rees will be the morning soloist, her selection, "The Ninety and Nine."

Dr. William Christie of the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society, will give an illustrated talk at the 7:30 p.m. service, of his recent tour of the American Baptist work in the Caribbean.

Day Camp Closes

Calvary Baptist Junior Day Camp will close Friday. This week over 30 fourth and fifth grade boys and girls and their counselors spent each day at the V'llder addition in Pt. Firman Park, San Pedro. The hours were spent in trail blazing, beach combing, cook-outs, and a study of flowers, shrubs, trees, insects and small animal life. Crafts, games and worship were included in each day's program.

Serving on the camp staff were Mrs. Sorrella Dunagan, camp director; James Chester, Leroy Charcas, Mrs. Harold Tuttle, Mrs. Myrtle Nelson, Mrs. Dolores Brancato, Mrs. Marabel

Chapman and Mrs. Juanita Anderson. Youth of the church have planned a progressive dinner and swim party for tomorrow night. Hollypark Swim School has been reserved for the group. Hosts for the dinner will be

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sims, Mr. and Mrs. DeVerne Sisco, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lunsford.
