MODERN BUILDING—This is the architect's drawing of the new store building for Lawson's Jewelers at the corner of El Prado and Sartori, which will be completed in a few weeks. The firm, which has served Torrance for the past eight years, will begin a huge moving sale at its present location, 1317 El Prado, today in anticipation of the move.

Huge Moving Sale Now on At Lawson's

A sensational removal sale to clear out stock before moving to expanded new quarters, will begin today at Lawson's Jewelers, 1317 El Prado. Prices will be slashed from 33 to 50 per cent on most items in

Scouts Receive Eagle Award

In an impressive Court of Honor held August 15 in the Elks Hall, Explorer Scouts Kenneth MacKenzie and Richard Wagner of North Torrance troop 753-X were given their Eagle Scout awards, one of the highest attainments in Scouting. Kenny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. MacKenzie, 4332 W. 178 st. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wagner, 18826 Thornburgh ave.

Leader Milton Huber, who has been with the same group of boys since they were Tenderfoot Scouts, reviewed the activities leading to eligibility for the awards. He introduced the boys who gave talks on "What Scouting Has Meant to Me."

Ben Rush, district Scouting chairman, presented the pins. "The boys then pinned orchid corsages on their mothers in appreciation of their help. Leader Huber was presented with a silver cigarette lighter as a token "thank you" from the Eagle Scouts.

Life Pins were awarded to Raymond Andicochea, Ronnie Davis and Richard Zook. David McVey showed color movies of Scout camp-outs after which refreshments were served by Scout mothers of the Explorers. Among the guests were members of Scout troop 753 who attended in full dress uniform, and Roger Holmes, Exalted Ruler of Torrance Elk Lodge who sponsor the troop.

Attend Meeting of Geranium Society
Mrs. Fred A. Bode and Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Bode Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stone of Torrance attended the Wednesday night meeting of the South-west Branch of the International Geranium Society in Plummer Park near Santa Monica Blvd. Business of the evening was discussion of the schedule for the next annual geranium show to be given May 17-18.

When you are driving, let the others in the car do the sight-seeing; keep your eyes on the road. If you want to look at the view, says the Automobile Club of Southern California, stop the car or let someone else do the driving.
