

Celebrates Fifth Birthday

Five year old Darlene Ballucci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ballucci, 18716 Yukon ave., had her first birthday party Wednesday afternoon. Neighborhood boys and girls were invited to play games and join in a treasure hunt after which party refreshments were served. The birthday cake was in the form of "The Old Woman in the Shoe."

Ellen and Linda Cobb, neighbors, helped in preparing balloons and favors for the children, and in serving.

Guests

On the guest list were Gary and David, brothers, Pamela, Rickey, Mike and Bobby Sanders, Steve, Kerry and David Morgan, Ellen, Linda, and Jeanette Cobb, Debby Donbush, Michael, Steven and Chris Morgan, Ellen, Linda, and Jones, Nancy and Karen Ballucci, Susan Scott, Craig and Sharon Young, Patty and Mark Medici, Denise Russo, Mark Friesthler.

LARGER HEADQUARTERS—This is the new building at 2353 Torrance Blvd., occupied by Jansson's Sewing Center, which will celebrate its grand opening this weekend, with free prizes and free service. (Press Photo)

Prizes, Free Service Offered During Jansson Sewing Center Grand Opening

Prizes and free service will be given away during the grand opening of Jansson's Sewing Center at its new location, 2353 Torrance Blvd. to be conducted today, tomorrow and Saturday. The firm which has served Torrance for several years from its Cravens ave. location, has moved to larger and more modern facilities in order to provide even better service to customers, Sulo Jansson, the owner, announced.

Free orchids will be presented to the lady customers during the opening, and free coffee and doughnuts will be served. As a grand prize, an Adler sewing machine will be given away Saturday. Tickets may be picked up at the sewing center at any time during the opening and the winner need not be present.

Another feature of the opening sale will be free oiling and adjustment of sewing machines, and free demonstration of the large selection of machines available at Jansson's.

Jansson's will continue to offer the finest in sewing machine products and service at its larger headquarters.

Reserve School Now Enrolling

Starting its ninth year, the 6220 USAR School of Ft. MacArthur, Calif., will hold enrollment of students Sept. 6 through Sept. 13. Col. Allan J. Stamps, commandant, announced today.

Courses available to qualified reservists are: Infantry, Armor, Artillery, Adjutant General, Judge-Advocate General, Ordnance, Transportation, Quartermaster, Signal, Engineer and Command and General Staff.

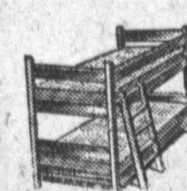

All reservists in the Los Angeles area who are qualified are urged to enroll, including members of reserve units which have been, or are being deactivated. Prospective students can call or write to the Ft. MacArthur USAR School, Building 950, Topside, Ft. MacArthur, Calif. Phone number is TE 2-4571, Ext. 4511.

Youngest Juggler Booked for Shows

Dana Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Jezowski, 17575 Yukon ave., known as the world's youngest professional juggler, has been booked to appear at the Pomona Fair September 12. He will appear there at the Mexican Village, giving performances at 3 and 7 p.m. On September 24 he will appear in the Amphitheater at 3 p.m. and in the Mexican Village at 6 p.m.

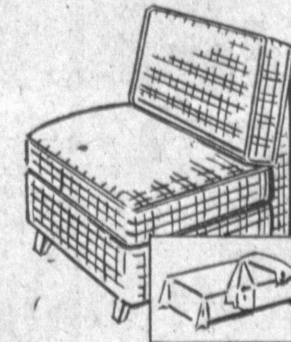

Dale is also starting to do shows at air bases in the area. His first such show was given August 2 at the Stanton Nike Site.
