New Telephone Directories To Be Delivered Monday

Telephone book gettin' a little dogeared after 12 months of hard use? Pacific Telephone has a pretty reliable solution to the problem—the 1958 Torrance telephone directory slated for delivery starting Monday.

white book lends emphasis to unprecedented telephone growth throughout the community. The new southern area issue will contain an additional 13,000 listings bringing the total to nearly 100,000 names.

phone subscriber's name appear in print? In an estimated 475,000 directories—the total number circulated throughout the southern area in a year's time. Outside of the Torrance exchange, the southern area includes the Hawthorne, El Segundo, Compton, Inglewood, Lomita and San Pedro exchanges.
