Nativity Mothers Install Officers

Mrs. Frank Kristufek was installed as president of Nativity Mothers Club September 16 at a meeting in the church parish hall. Other officers installed were Mrs. Vernon Ewing, first vice president; Mrs. H. L. Loomis, second vice president; Mrs. Robert L. Moffit, secretary; Mrs. E. R. Katzork, treasurer.

Inaugurating an installation ceremony, Mrs. Don Bryant, former president, chose the Blessed Virgin Mary to be the patroness of the new board and each member was placed under the guidance of a Title of Our Lady designated to their particular office for the coming year. Officers received corsages of white carnations tied in green, carrying out the Nativity School colors.

Mrs. John Tweedy, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the outgoing board with a gift commemorating the offices.

Volunteering as room mothers were Mrs. Raymond Montenegro, first; Mrs. Paul Leack, first and second; Mrs. James O'Brien, second; Mrs. Richard Reamer, third; Mrs. Kieran Brennan, fourth; Mrs. Edmund Metivier, fifth; Mrs. Andrew Rabel, fifth and sixth; Mrs. Donald Franklin, sixth; Mrs. Patrick McManus, seventh; Marve Erickson, eighth.

Sister Mary Gilbert, director of teacher training of the confraternity of Christian Doctrine office of Los Angeles urged attendance at a training class which commences October 1 at Nativity parish hall.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Marve Erickson and her committee of eighth grade mothers.

hosted by Mrs. Alton Nigh was reported as a success.

To Fashion Show
It was suggested that the club attend a Friday luncheon and fashion show at the Plush Horse.

A toy party will be given by Mrs. Louis Ambrosia the first week in October. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jess Huerta.

Walteria Business Women Review Activities At Dinner Meeting

Another adventure in foreign cookery was enjoyed by the Walteria Business Women's Club at their dinner meeting held September 10 at Gonzalez restaurant in Wilmington.

Following a delicious dinner of a variety of Spanish entrees, a business meeting was conducted by President Harriet Labit.

Reports of the committees working on the Round Up Day Activities were given and final work schedules assigned.

Show Slides
Colored slides of the Minstrel variety show given recently brought back memories of fun and hard work. Also enjoyed were the exceptionally beautiful pictures of the Hawaiian Islands taken by Harriet Labit during her recent vacation there.

During the annual Walteria Round-Up Day, September 14, the Walteria Business Women's Club sponsored a Youth activities exhibit in the recreation hall. The local Boy Scouts showed the equipment they use for overnight camping. Cub Scouts presented their Pinewood Derby racing cars. Handicraft exhibits were displayed by Brownies and Girl Scouts showed a collection of dolls of all nations.

Give Exhibit
The Walteria Camp Fire Girls display created particular interest as the girls demonstrated the removal of stains from various materials as part of their activities in Home Craft. One girl demonstrated work on a bead loom showing how their ceremonial head bands are made. Girls of another group demonstrated chenille craft and made covered coat hangers.

The Blue Birds made colorful litter bags and gave them to everyone visiting the exhibit.

Participation award certificates were given to each youth group represented and their leaders.

The October meeting of the Business Women's Club will be held on Oct. 17 at the House of Rummage in San Pedro. This will be a work party in preparation for a rummage sale the next day.
