Collge Board Honored by Plaque Rites

Recognition of members of the El Camino College Boards of Trustees, past, present and future, will be perpetuated on the campus of El Camino College following the unveiling of a plaque during the past week.

Presentation of the metal marker, which appears just inside the Crenshaw, entrance to the college Administration Building, was made by Robert Russel of Twin Peaks, president of the first college board. Present for the brief cere monies were members of the Boards, college officials, and their wives. Widows of two for-Board members also participated.

The dedication occurred on September 22, prior to a dinner meeting honoring the lay educational leaders. The regular meeting the current college Board followed.

Services Held For Veteran City Physician

Funeral services for Dr. Arthur P. Stevenson, who died Saturday after a half-centry of medical practice, were conducted Monday at Stone and Meyer Mortuary Chapel.

Dr. Stevenson, 73, 1417 El Prado, opened his medical practice in Torrance in 1922, and was on the staff of Torrance Memorial Hospital from its opening in 1925 until his retirement a year ago. During his long career the Iowa-born physician delivered 3400 babies and once estimated With purchase to-taling $5.00 or more Rev. Milton Sippel, pastor of Rev. Milton Sippel, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiated. Interment was in Pacific
