School to Stop Dumping Trash

The Torrance Unified School district decided Tuesday night to stop hauling its own rubbish and awarded to contract to a private firm to do the work. A contract for hauling away rubbish at the district's schools and other property was awarded to the San Pedro-Wilmington Rubbish Co. after Assistant Superintendent S. E. Waldrip reported that private firms could do the job cheaper and more efficiently than the district. He presented figures showing that its costs the district about $14,600 a year to take care

Steinberg Heads Pharmacy Assn.

William (Bill) Steinberg, Torrance resident and owner of the Medical Arts Pharmacy here, will be installed as president of the Harbor Area Pharmaceutical Association Sunday at the Jump 'n' Jack Restaurant. Other officers will include Geraldine Vldovich, of Torrance Pharmacy, vice president; Robert Robinson, of San Pedro, secretary-treasurer.

Gallagher has headed the agency since he came here from Washington, and said that the firm's policy of honest deals and expert mechanical servicing has paid off in attracting numerous satisfied new customers.

Imported Auto Agency Adds to New Car Lines

Manhattan Motors has become an imported car center with the addition of two new lines of foreign cars.

In addition to being the official Hillman dealer, the auto agency at 2301 Sepulveda Blvd., Manhattan Beach, has now added Lloyds and Volvos to its new car lines, according to Earl Gallagher, who assumed leadership of the firm a few months ago.

Besides its new car sales, the dealership specializes in servicing imported cars with expert mechanics trained especially to handle foreign autos.

Gallagher has headed the agency since he came here from Washington, and said that the firm's policy of honest deals and expert mechanical servicing has paid off in attracting numerous satisfied new customers.

Freeway Bus Service Hit

Better bus service on the Harbor freeway from its terminus at 126th St. to downtown Los Angeles was requested today by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, in allet to Ralph P. Merritt, Executive Director of the Metropolitan Transit Authority.

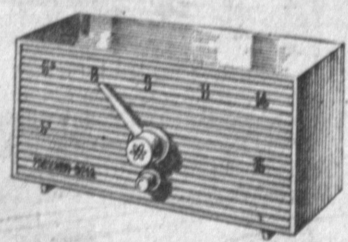

"It seems to me that the public is entitled to much better transportation than is now provided in this area. There should be an express bus every fifteen minutes on the Harbor freeway," Supervisor Hahn declared.

ATTEND LEGION MEET

Roger Evans, Stanley Helman, and Carter Dow, members of the Torrance Moose Lodge, attended a meeting of the Legion of the Moose, second degree of the order, at the East Los Angeles lodge last Sunday. Mrs. George Clay, Mrs. Stanley Helman and Mrs. Carter Dow, members of the Women of the Moose, also attended the Legion ceremonies.
