Joyce Noone-Kenneth Ivers Wed In Catholic Church Ceremony

Miss Joyce Noon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Noone, 2763 Onrado, and Kenneth D. Ivers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ivers of Wilmington, exchanged marriage vows Oct. 11 in a double ring service at Nativity Catholic Church. Father Thomas Glynn officiated.

Altar boys were James Noone, a cousin of the bride, and James Gillis. Miss L. McCologogue, organist, accompanied Frank Algramme who sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

Baskets of flowers graced the aisle down which the wedding party walked.

The bride gown was of white nylon net and lace, styled with fitted bodice, full skirt with lace overskirt, and long sleeves. The V neck was outlined in sequins. The short veil was caught to a tiny cap trimmed in sequins and pearls. The bridal bouquet was of white roses with white orchid centered.

Miss Janet Noone, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a rose chiffon dress, floor length, and with white roses with white orchid centered.

Decorative items were provided by the bride's mother, Mrs. John Noone, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Harold Ivers.

The bride attended Torrance and Wilmington schools and is a graduate of Banning High. She was employed at the Hermosa Beach Jim Dandy store.

The groom was graduated from Banning High and is an apprentice pipe fitter.

During the reception, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Noone, and her aunts, Mrs. Roy Johnson, and Miss Helen Wright, called from Brockton, Mass., to congratulate the bride couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Neal On Las Vegas Honeymoon

On a honeymoon in Las Vegas are the recently married Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Ray Neal, who will make their new home at 1253 W. 163rd St., Gardena. Mrs. Neal until her marriage Oct. 11 was Shirley Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Todd, 906 Belton Ave., Torrance. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Helen Neal of Gardena.

A candlelight service in Western Avenue Baptist Church united the couple. Rev. Walter Graham officiated.

Mrs. Dorothy McDonald at the organ played a medley of nuptial music as the guests gathered. Miss Esther Howe sang, "I Love You Truly," "Because of You," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride walked to the altar on the arm of her father, gowned in formal white lace over satin. The fitted lace bodice had long sleeves and Peter Pan collar. The ballerina-length skirt was in tiers of lace. Her shoulder-length illusion veil fell from a pearl and sequin tiera and her bridal bouquet was of white orchids encircled with white carnations.

Miss Helen Todd was her sister's honor attendant, wearing ballerina-length pink lace over satin. She carried a cascade of pink rosebuds.

Jimmy Nolan was best man and ushers were Kenneth Todd, Brent Albright, and Dick Kelm.

A wedding reception was held in the church hall, Mrs. Robert Johnson registering the 150 guests.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High School. Her husband is a Gardena High School graduate and is employed by the Santa Fe Railroad in Los Angeles.

Shows The bride was honored at miscellaneous showers prior to her marriage by hostesses, Mrs. Cy Monahan and Mrs. Jerry Jones in parties given in their homes.

Dinner Guests The dinner guests were Mrs. Sadae Yokochi of Nagoya, Japan, and her interpreter, Miss Etfuko Onizuko. Mrs. Yokochi, the mother of eight children, is very active in Japanese political life. She is a member of the Aichi Prefectural Assembly and holds an office equivalent to our State Assemblyman. She has been serving her third term of four years each, and is one of three elected women in the eight member assembly.

She has been in office almost as long as Japanese women have had the right to vote.

Mrs. Yokochi is very interested in our pre-election political activities and in the American family life, the role of the father, and how he earns his living.

Hospital Auxiliary Sponsors Drive for Volunteer Workers

The annual drive for volunteers for Harbor General Hospital began Thursday with a general meeting in the hospital auditorium. The meeting was sponsored by the newly organized hospital auxiliary, Mrs. A. H. Harley, president.

Members of the executive board explained how participation in the following phases of volunteer work is possible and associate membership in the auxiliary; Christmas projects; organizational aid.

Eligibility Membership in the auxiliary is open to anyone who will work at the hospital a minimum of four hours a month. A yearly dues of $1 is charged to cover the auxiliary operating expenses.

There are many and varied ways of donating time, all of which are said to be needed. These include ward work, work in surgery, admitting, clerical, pharmacy, laboratory, and pediatrics.

Associate memberships are established for those who wish to help the hospital from their homes or through small groups. Sewing is a constant need, and this may be accomplished through the associate membership. Groups and individuals make layettes and baby clothes for the maternity ward, lap robes, scarves, quilts, occupational therapy aprons, bed pockets, and bed shawls. Knitted afghans, bed socks, and crocheted booties are also desirable. In addition, there is a need for people to collect good used adult and baby clothes and toys in good condition.

Anyone interested in donating time or services, may obtain further information by calling Mrs. Herman Weston, vice president of volunteers, at FR 9-4177, or Mrs. Marguerite Broen MacAllister, volunteer services coordinator, at Harbor General Hospital, FA 2-2380.

Jaycettes Will Fete Members

Mrs. Ed Karlow, president of Torrance Jaycettes, announced a "get-acquainted" night for new members, Oct. 21 at Club Alondra. Cocktail hour will be 6:30-7:30 p.m., and will be followed by a steak dinner.

Don J. Henry, famous graphologist, will entertain the guests with instructions on the art of "reading" hand writing.

All wives and guests of the Jr. Chamber of Commerce are invited to participate. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Leonard Radford, FR 4-6485, or Mrs. Lloyd Fossum, FR 6-2088.

Also working on the committee are Mrs. Dick Florence, chairman; Mrs. Bill Lyons, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Mangan, publicity.
