

SITTING PRETTY—Atop the new Ford is Lita Dawn, who accentuates the stylish lines of just one of many new cars that will be displayed at South Bay Center's Auto Show, November 10-15. The second Annual "Accent on Autos" will show over 80 of the startling new domestic cars from General Motors, Chrysler Corp. and Ford Motor Co., it was announced by Merchant's Association President Arnold Klarman. The huge Center, 174th St. and Hawthorne Blvd., expects over 200,000 people to view the cars during the six-day showing.

Harbor Students Elect Queen For Homecoming

Yvonne Chavez, Harbor College coed and candidate of Gamma Epsilon Tau Printing Fraternity, was crowned Homecoming Queen today by Don Derouin, president of the Associated Student Organization, in noon ceremonies held in the Campus Quadrangle.

Runners-up, who will act as her princesses throughout homecoming festivities, are Lena Jo Coyle, 20, of Los Angeles, representing Theta Xi Omega Fraternity, and Karen Gould, 19, 27010 Buckskin Lane, Rolling Hills, the candidate of Delta Sigma Epsilon Sorority.

Torrance Bonds Sold to Bank

Bank of America was the successful bidder Tuesday for $1,800,000 worth of Torrance Unified School District bonds at a sale of securities before the County Board of Supervisors, it was announced by Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

The Bank offered an interest rate of 3.75 per cent, with payment of a premium of $34,099 reducing the interest to a net of 3.56 per cent, Chace said.

Funds realized from the sale of the bonds, will be used to complete the third increment at South Torrance High School and the fourth increment at North Torrance High School.

New Parents Class Starts

Assistance in preparing for the blessed event is offered prospective parents in a new series of expectant mothers' classes to be held at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson St., starting today at 1 p.m.

Many private physicians are urging their prenatal patients to attend these classes, according to Dr. B. A. Kogan, District Health Officer for the County Health Department, the sponsoring

Navy Officer Plan Deadline

High school seniors and graduates have only until Nov. 15 to apply for the Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps, F. D. Fields, CSI, Torrance Area Navy Recruiter, said today. Applicants will take the nation-wide competitive examination on Dec. 13 as the first step toward an appointment as midshipman.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a regular commission while studying at the civilian college of his choice which has an NROTC unit. All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives an annual retainer of $600 for four years.

Widening Work Near Completion

Major street improvements on Manhattan Beach Blvd. and Prairie Ave. adjacent to Alondra park are nearing completion and should be finished within 30 days, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn reported this week.

Project adds another traffic lane, paved shoulders, curbs and gutters to the east side of Prairie from Redondo Beach to Manhattan Beach Blvds., and to the south side of Manhattan Beach Blvd. from Prairie to Dominguez Channel.

Manhattan Beach Blvd. is also being resurfaced from curb to curb with most of this work completed.
