33/4% Bonds, Election 1955, Series E

Payment and Registration

Principal and semi-annual interest (May 1 and November 1) payable, at the option of the holder, at the office of the Treasurer of Los Angeles County in Los Angeles, California, or at any of the fiscal agencies of the County in New York, N. Y., or in Chicago, III. First coupon (annual) payable November 1, 1959. Coupon bonds in denomination of $1,000 registerable only as to both principal and interest.

,Tax Exemption

In the opinion of counsel, interest payable by the District upon its bonds is exempt from all present Federal and State of California personal income taxes under existing

Legality for Investment

We believe that these bonds are legal investments in California for savings banks, subject to the legal limitations

upon the amount of a bank's investment, and are likewise legal investments in California for other funds which may be invested in bonds which are legal investments for savings banks, and are eligible as security for deposits of public moneys in California.

These bonds, issued under provision of Division 3, Chapter

17 of the California Education Code for various school purposes, in the opinion of counsel constitute the legal and binding obligations of the Torrance Unified School District and are payable, both principal and interest, from ad valorem taxes which may be levied without limitation as to rate or amount upon all of the taxable real property in said District and which, under the laws now in force, may be levied without limitation as to rate or amount upon all taxable personal property, except certain classes thereof, in said District.

Proposition 18 Labeled as "Right to Work for Less" Scheme

VINCENT THOMAS

ASSEMBLYMAN

ALBERT ISEN

MAYOR

TORRANCE

Business, civic, religious and political leaders of our community are united in condemning Proposition 18 as a fraud, masquerading under dishonest and misleading slogans. It is backed by a few extremely powerful, wealthy, behindthe-scenes special interests. Their only objective is to divide labor and management into warring camps . . . and to benefit from the strikes and strife and depressed wages which have accompanied "Right-to-work" laws in every unfortunate state where they have been enacted.

Proposition 18 Would Breed Labor Management Corruption

BURTON W. CHACE

4th DISTRICT

Despite the misleading claims of its promoters, Proposition 18 contains not one single provision for dealing with labormanagement corruption. It would have just the opposite effect. Whenever honest responsible working agreements between employers and employees are destroyed — as they would be by Proposition 18 — it is only the greedy, corrupt and extremist elements in management and labor who benefit! Secretary of Labor Mitchell himself recently stated that "right-to-work" laws tend, if anything, to increase corruption, strikes and labor-management disputes.
