(Portrait by Seeman)

Saturday Wedding Unites Couple In San Pedro Catholic Cathedral

Baskets of white stock and gladioli decorated the altar at Holy Trinity Catholic Cathedral in San Pedro for the Nov. 1 wedding of Miss Audrian Jean Rozendal to Joseph R. Mihaljevich. The pews were draped with white satin ribbons and flowers tied with satin bows. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Rev. William Apping, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rozendal, 1803 Gramercy Ave., and Mrs. Nellie Mihaljevich of San Pedro and the late Joseph Mihaljevich.

Bridal Gown
For her wedding the bride wore intermission length peau de soie with Chantilly lace bodice. Fashioned in princess style, it had a square neckline and short sleeves. Her jewelry in pearls set in white gold and with two diamonds, was a gift of the bridegroom.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion with Chantilly lace trim fell from a crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bridal bouquet was of double white orchids and stephanotis.

Attendants
Attending the bride as matron of honor was Sharon Thomas. She wore light cocoa taffeta with a darker shade cummerbund of chiffon and bustle, and shoes and hat to match.

Bridesmaids were Helen Lee, Cynthia Jansson, Delia Carello, Zalanda Match, and Darlene Susich. All wore apricot colored taffeta with a deeper shade cummerbund, hats and shoes.

Ronnie Surina served the groom as best man and ushers were Bob Frka, Anthony Galosie, Joe Galosie, Chris Louras, and Richard Rozendal, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a gown of periwinkle blue with satin accent, with shoes to match, and a white orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore light blue and an orchid corsage. A buffet dinner was served to 300 guests at the reception which followed in the San Pedro Woman's Club. A wedding dance preceded the departure of the newlyweds on their honeymoon to Carmel, Monterey, Santa Cruz, and San Francisco.

San Pedro Home
The new home will be established at 671 38th St., San Pedro.
The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School, class of '56, and was employed by a San Pedro doctor.
The groom was graduated from San Pedro High School in '55. He is employed by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Babb and Sherwin Names Linked by Nuptials

On Nov. 2 at 2 p.m. at St. Andrews Presbyterian church in Redondo Beach, Roger Paul Sherwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hagan of Visalia, claimed as his bride Sharon Rae Babb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Babb, 1752 Andree, Torrance.

The bride wore a ballerina-length ivory brocade gown, her shoulder-length illusion veil was held in place by a seed pearl crown. Ivory satin slippers completed her bridal dress. Roses, stephanotis and lily-of-the-valley mingled in her bouquet.

Carla Babb Mill sister of the bride was maid of honor. Another sister, Mrs. Judy Kienhaus, served as bridesmaid. Their matching gowns were in yellow and apricot, with matching crown hats and satin slippers and pom-poms. The brides carried a crescent bouquet of bronze and gold spider mums and pom-poms. The ballerina-length dresses were fitted in the bodice with full skirts of taffeta.

Gordon Carrier in the role of best man with Ken Purdy and Wayne Steele as ushers completed the wedding party.

The bridal pair received their guests at the church reception, then left for a stay at Big Bear.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School, now employed by Alter Realty. The groom is a graduate of Redondo High School. He has served in the Air Force and the Army and is employed by Ryan Aeronautics.

On their return the couple will reside at 18819 Andree St.

Sorority Holds Halloween Party

A Halloween party was held Nov. 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Boy by the Eta Mu Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. All the members and their husbands and guests attended.

A Scavenger Hunt, Bobbing for apples, dancing and a costume parade were a few of the evening's events. Prizes were awarded for the most original costumes. A buffet supper was served.
