

Variety Show At Harbor Sing

One of the most sparkling variety programs in many a month has been planned tomorrow by the Harbor City Community Sing, it was announced today by Delbert Bench, chairman of the songfest held every Friday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the auditorium of Harbor City Elementary School, 1508 W. 254th St. Randy Arase, gifted 12-year-old accordionist, will be one of the instrumental headliners, and John Skammes will be heard in selections on that rarely heard instrument, the musical saw. Rounding out the program will be Barbara Ann Downs and Gerald Peterson, semi-pops duo who will offer both solo and concerted numbers.

Torrance, Lomita Residents Cast in Comedy Show

"Seven Nuns at Las Vegas," the comedy farce of seven nuns who under strange circumstances find themselves in the glamorous gambling capitol of the world, will open tomorrow as the next production of the San Pedro Theatre Arts.

Performances are scheduled for 8:15 p.m. on Nov. 14, 15, 16; Nov. 21, 22, 23; and Nov. 28, 29, 30 at 501 S. Cabrillo Ave., San Pedro.

Directed by Nancy Andrews of 2465 W. 250th St., Lomita, the play features Darlene and Betty Jane La Fontaine and Bonnie Baker as the chorus girls.

The seven nuns are played by Marrion Lepper, Cay Kellogg, Kathy Crump, Gladys Manu, Rose Bongioanni, Diana Perry, and Dorothea Cicalone.

In addition, playgoers will see a short one-act "Poor Old Jim" as a bonus production. This play features in roles its director Charles Hackbusch, 4520 Pacific Coast Hwy., Laura Madigan of San Pedro; and Hal Lepper of 23726 Vine St.

CHEST BOOSTERS—Mayflower Trailer Co. was the first in Torrance for both the company and employees to make their donations to the Community Chest campaign. From left, Fred Hampton, company controller, gives check in behalf of employees to Paul Cote, while Victor Johnson, company president, gives firm's contribution to Donald Anderson.
