YMCA's Launch Fellowship Week

With the theme, "Behold I Make All Things New," world fellowship week, Nov. 9-16 will be launched in the Harbor area and in 70 YWCAs around the world. Mrs. William Lever, world fellowship chairman, announced today. This annual event of over 60 years will be commemorated by members of more than 1900 units in the USA.

The YWCA of the United States is a part of a mutual service program of YWs around the world. Last year's gifts enabled the foreign division to provide advisory secretaries to work in YWCAs in 19 countries abroad.

Local events dedicated to World Fellowship will be a tea with an international flavor at the San Pedro branch on Nov. 12 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Vincent Kalliterna is the chairman of the San Pedro committee on community and world fellowship.

General chairmen for the tea are: Mrs. O. M. Benton and Mrs. Archie Royal. They are assisted by Mrs. Louis Campbell, in charge of decorating the tea table, and Mrs. A. C. Akerson, program.

Evelyn Noxsel, field staff for the Western Region will speak giving added information on recent overseas YW projects.

"Of special interest to Y-teens and their parents and friends is the World Fellowship Supper sponsored by the Castlettes which will feature Carol Nyholm, teen age director of the Long Beach YWCA. Miss Nyholm toured Europe for three months this past summer staying in YWCAs and in addition attended the World Membership Conference in Greece. All Y-teens and their parents are invited to this event on Nov. 15, at 6 p.m. Reservations will need to be made immediately to secure a place.

"Y-teens of the Torrance Branch are planning social observances in their individual groups," according to Mrs. Joel S. Canby, Torrance Branch Director.

The Wilmington Branch will

Evelyn Noxsel to Visit YWCA's

Evelyn Noxsel, field consultant from the National Board of the YWCA working in the western region, will be in the Harbor Area YWCA Nov. 10-14, according to Mrs. Elsa J. Morris, executive director.

Her visit will begin when she attends the "Torrance Branch Committee on Administration" Nov. 10 at 10 a.m. speaking on "The Scope of the Young Women's Christian Association."

On Wednesday she will speak to the Harbor Area Board of Directors when it meets at the Torrance Branch, 2320 Carson at 10 a.m.

At the board meeting, Mrs. Lorraine Harper, president will appoint the members of the "ordered group" who will work on the national study project headed by Dr. Harleigh Trecker.

Dr. Frances Clark, vice president of the area board, has already been named chairman.

In the afternoon, Miss Noxsel will speak at the "Tea With An International Flavor" given by the San Pedro Branch at 437 West Ninth St., San Pedro.

A meeting has been scheduled on program planning by Mrs. Robert Sharp, chairman. Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Norris and Miss Noxsel.

New Members to 'Get Acquainted'

The Gardena Valley Jewish Sisterhood cordially invites all its members to their "Get Acquainted" meeting, Nov. 18, 8:30 p.m., 14725 S. Gramercy Pl., Gardena.

There will be a short business meeting conducted by Mrs. Selma Greenbaum, president of the sisterhood, after which refreshments will be served by Mrs. Miriam Hirsch, hospitality chairman.

The highlight of the evening will be a game planned to better acquaint all the new members with the group.

The Sisterhood also has a display of beautiful Chanukah merchandise at the center which may be purchased any meeting night and every Sunday until Chanukah, Dec. 7.

Betsy Ross Club To Hold Meeting

The Betsy Ross Club of the Torrance Eastern Star will hold a meeting Nov. 18 at the Torrance Masonic Temple at 10 a.m. New officers for the 1959 term will be elected.

The final 1958 meeting will feature a "Pot Luck" luncheon at 12 a.m.

The officers will furnish coffee, cream, rolls and butter.

Evening Nuptials Exchanged

Miss Susan Ann Babcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard D. Babcock, 2012 Gramercy Ave., exchanged wedding vows with James William MacDougall, son of Mr. and Mrs. James MacDougall of 2616 Cabrillo Ave., at the First Christian Church of Torrance at an evening service Nov. 8.

Miss Babcock wore a long-sleeved gown of lace over net-satin. The bodice was cut with a boat neckline. She carried a bouquet of mixed white orchids and white carnations.

Marilynn Voorhees the maid of honor wore a contrasting Princess style gown with a trapeze back. Her bouquet was composed of purple orchids and white carnations.

The three bridesmaids wore gowns similar in style to that of the maid of honor but in different shades.

Joyce Hockey wore green, Sheila Hogan, coral and Kay Smith, blue. All of the bridesmaids carried white carnations.

Best man was George Baxton with Gary Dawson, Ken Pevic and John Trenary acting as ushers.

Leonard D. Babcock, father of the bride performed the wedding vows.

Soloist Mrs. Joan George and organist Mrs. Eleanor Hanes provided the wedding music titled "I'll Walk Beside You" and "Wedding Prayer".

The bride and groom are both graduates of Torrance High School and are attending El Camino College. She is a past Honored Queen of Torrance Bethel 50 Jobs Daughters.

The reception was held in the social hall of the First Christian Church immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Linda Simpson was in charge of registering the 250 guests in the guest book.

After the reception the couple left for a few days at Big Bear. On their return they will reside in Torrance.

Men's Night Was Buffet Style

The annual Men's Night of the Walteria Business Women's Club was held Nov. 7 at the Walteria Recreation Hall.

Barbecued chicken and the culinary specialties of each member were displayed buffet style as the fifty guests were assigned dinners partners by a mix match game.

Following the dinner discussions there was an evening of games and refreshments. Prizes were won by Mrs. and Mrs. Mase Moton, Mrs. Virgil Hancock, and Duane Nansel.

The committee in charge of this year's party were Mmes. B. P. Pendleton, Herbert Jackson and Robert Sleeth, Jr.

Los Fiestadores Set Dance Date

Los Fiestadores Nov. 15 dance will be held at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro.

There will be a pre-party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hallock, 1010 Beech Ave., Torrance at 8 p.m., Nov. 15.

The evening will be a guest night also. Host and hostess will be Mr. and Mrs. Homer St. Martin, Bob Clayton, Jim Lee and Art Woodcock.

Mrs. Bob Lee Krieh

Krieh and Weber Names Linked by Nuptials

Newly married Mr. and Mrs. Lee Krieh returned Nov. 9 from a one-week wedding visit to Carmel. They will make their new home in Inglewood. For her marriage in the Nativity Catholic church in Torrance, the former Miss Elizabeth Ann Weber daughter of Margaret G. Weber of 1610 Date Ave., Torrance, chose a floor-length, taffeta gown with three tiers of chantilly lace over a bouffant skirt, the sleeves were finger-tip length and tapered. Her nylon illusion veil was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a crescent corsage of white orchids and roses.

A crescent bouquet of yellow and bronze carnations accented the apricot taffeta, ballerin length gown wore by the maid of honor, Janice Schlimmer.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Krieh of Lawndale, asked Ray Bumgardener to serve as best man. Al Churchin seated the guests at the 3 p.m. ceremony.

After the nuptial service, the couple greeted guests at a reception at the YWCA.

The bride is a graduate of Mount St. Mary's College. The groom is a graduate of Minneapolis High school and served with the US Army in Japan and Korea. He is now affiliated with the Southern Calif. Water Co.

Chaplain to Talk at DAR Meeting

In keeping with our national season of Thanksgiving established by the pilgrims, "Colonial Religion" is the theme chosen for the meeting of Susan B. Anthony chapter, DAR, with Mrs. H. Parker Dunlop, state chaplain, as the featured speaker.

Mrs. Dunlop, whose home is in Long Beach, has traveled extensively in the Holy Land and is well known as a lecturer and teacher of biblical history and literature.

Preceding the program, a 1 p.m. luncheon will be held in the driftwood room of the Hawaiian restaurant on East Pacific Coast Hwy., Nov. 16.

Miss Odette Powell, chapter regent, extends a cordial invitation to visiting daughters.

Ray Clairmont to 'Call' Dance

Ray Clairmont, known as the "Elvis Presley" of square dancing will call for the Nov. 14 dance of the Traveling Yardbirds square dance club, it was announced today by club president Charvel Barngrover.

Friday's dance has been planned at the fun level and will be open to all square dancers.

Dance will be held at the Roosevelt school at 3533 W. Compton Blvd. in Lawndale, beginning at eight o'clock. Refreshment will be served.

Guest callers will be featured at all club dances during November and December, according to Barngrover. Calling for the Nov. 28 dance will be Gerald Reeser, popular Torrance caller and teacher.

The club holds two regular dances each month at the Roosevelt school.
