

Endowment Meet Discusses Gifts To Torrance Y

Members from the Torrance YMCA's endowment committee attended a YMCA Endowment Workshop recently in the Hollywood House.

Members of the local Endowment Committee are Hanley E. Rogers, chairman; Albert Isen, C. A. Mewborn, Stanley Remelmeier, Scott Albright, and Joe Wilcox.

Hanley Rogers announced that the Torrance YMCA is now authorized to participate in YMCA Life Income Contracts. This means that persons who want to help the "Y" can also help themselves through the advantages these plans provide.

Rogers pointed out that a person making a gift to the "Y" through one of these plans could save on capital gains tax; receive a reduction in their income tax, and reduce inheritance and estate taxes.

Yule Plans Told At Del Amo Member Meet

A special meeting of the Del Amo Civic Improvement Association is scheduled for 7 p.m., Nov. 25 at the Calvary Community Church, 1117 West Milton Street. This meeting is to discuss plans for the pot luck and children's Christmas party scheduled Dec. 2 at the Retail Clerks Union Hall, 25949 Bellport, Harbor City.

Members are asked to bring their favorite dishes. Tableware will be provided as well as coffee, milk, and soft drinks.

Santa Claus will make an early visit and have goodies for all the children. Donations of $1 per adult and 50c for children under 12 will be appreciated. Door prizes will be given. Ticket holders need not be present to win.

Miraleste Work Now Completed

Supervisor Burton W. Glace announced Tuesday that the Los Angeles County Road Department has completed the construction work on Miraleste Drive between Western Avenue and Via Colinita and the road is now work was performed under cash contract by the Griffith Company at a cost of $127,000.

The improvement consists of gutter and the repavement of the existing road to a new grade. The new roadway facilitates drainage and provides the traveling public with a smoother, wider riding surface and a road less subject to maintenance problems, Glace declared. The newly constructed roadway now provides for four lanes of traffic. The length of this improvement is 3.77 miles.

Actress Gets High Praise

Acclaim came this weekend to Marrion Lopper of Torrance for her performance as Sister Columba in the San Pedro Theater Arts production of "Seven Nuns at Las Vegas" which opened Friday, at the group's playhouse, 501 S. Cabrillo Ave.

Mrs. Lopper, who resides at 23726 Vine St., Torrance, is making her third appearance with the group, previously taking roles in "Janus" and "Guest in the House."

She is known to South Bay theatergoers for her work with The Chapel Theater at Manhattan Beach appearing in such productions as "Lady's Not for Burning" and "Lady Precious work with the Palo Alto Players.

Parents Take Part in Schools

Nearly 14,800 parents turned out for group conferences at all 26 of Torrance's schools during the past few weeks, according to a report received by the Board of Education.

At the meetings, parents learn about various parts of the school program and get a chance to ask questions about the general operation of the local educational system more than 2800 higher than last year.

Zaci, child's progress will be discussed individually with parents at conferences scheduled in schools after the first report cards are sent out. Some schools already have begun the parent-teacher conferences, while others are slated to begin soon.

Nursery School Sponsors Play

"A View From the Bridge" will be seen by members and friends of Torrance Nursery School Dec. 17 at The Players Ring, 8351 Santa Monica Blvd., Arthur Miller's popular drama is the group's money-making project for the fall semester.
