

Honor Blanchard For Long Service With Edison Co.

More than 100 Southern California Edison Company employees and friends of G. L. (Lee) Blanchard, Edison's Redondo Beach district manager, gathered Friday evening to honor him for 25 year's service.

Held in the banquet room of the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro, guests attended from as far as San Bernardino and Ventura to see the presentation of a diamond-studded, 25-year Edison pin to Blanchard.

Presentation of the pin was made by George N. Hawley, Edison vice-president, who related Blanchard's service with the utility. Hawley hired Blanchard in 1933 at Edison's San Bernardino office.

Casimir Students Take Parts of Original Pilgrims

The first Thanksgiving, which occurred back in 1621, was recreated Wednesday by members of Mrs. Anna Hause's fifth grade class at Casimir School.

Gov. Bradford, Miles Standish, Massasoit, and Squanto came to life again in the forms of members of the class. After considerable research on the Pilgrim fathers, the children re-enacted scenes in the Pilgrim church, dames' school (for girls), masters' school (for boys), candle-and-butter-making, and punishment.

Each of the children took the name of a Pilgrim. They toured several other rooms in the school to explain their costumes and something about the first Thanksgiving.

Hahn Presses for Freeway Phones

In a strongly worded resolution, authored by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, the county board of supervisors this week urged the State Highway Department to take immediate steps to install emergency telephones and center strip barriers on all freeways in the Los Angeles County metropolitan area to reduce accidents and protect lives and property.

In presenting the resolution, which was adopted unanimously, Supervisor Hahn pointed out that there are many occasions daily where instant, emergency communication is essential for the safety of the motoring public.
