TRY THIS CHICKEN VINTAGE

Cut 2 to 3-lb. frying chicken into serving portions. Season with salt, pepper and paprika, and roll in flour. Melt 1/4-lb. butter in a shallow baking dish. Lay the chicken pieces flesh side down and place on the bottom rack in an oven heated to 350 degrees. Bake 45 minutes. Then turn chicken so brown sides are up. Mix 2 or 3 tbs. sherry or shablis wine with an undiluted can of cream of mushroom soup, and spoon this over the chicken. Bake 30 minutes longer. Serve with hot rice.

HERE'S HOW TO COOK YOUR ROAST

Place roast fat side up on a rack in an open pan. Rub with 1/2 tsp. salt per pound. Slivers of garlic may be inserted into the roast. Do not sear. Add no water. Do not cover. Insert a meat thermometer through fat side into the center of roast. Do not let the tip of thermometer touch bone. Roast in slow oven (325 degrees) till thermometer reaches 195. This is well done, as all pork should be. Plan for 15 minutes out of oven before carving. This allows time to make gravy. Keep roast hot.

Semi Boneless
Fresh Pork Butt ROAST 43

Practically boneless with very little waste. Exceptionally well suited for slicing... to serve either hot or cold. Perfect size 3 1/2 to 4-lbs. for the average size family. Meat is firm and deliciously tender.
