"starter" for someone who has never had a true sports car but would like to start the New Year off right. It you buy this for your wife or daughter, they will thank you the year round. It is newly eredecorated in Angel White. Interior is in tip top shape. Mileage is exceptionally low for a car of this year. Drive it once and you will see that the former owner took good care of it. Almost any dealer would buy this for $1000 and sell it for $1295. We took it in trade and can offer it for only $1095.

1955 Austin-Healey plete with overdrive transmission, ton-neau cover, tool set, heater, wire wheels. Finished in opalescent royal blue. Frankly this car is not in as good shape as the one above, but we will offer it at such a ridiculously lew price that we won't even mention it here. Come in, drive it, and at our low price you will steal it. Don't delay on this buy.

1958 Triumph TR-3 Try this one and you'll buy it. Finished in Old English White. Fitted Radio and Heater. The car with the Gay Look. Former owner traded it in on a new MG Sedan because of growing family. Complete data of former owner (local executive) available. Never raced. A new one like this would cost you over $3000, but our Christmas price to you is UNDER $2000. rack on top. Powerflight, radio, two-tone green. Interior like new.
