

Lutheran Church Plans Two Yule Services for Members' Children

Ascension Lutheran Sunday School in North Torrance will hold two children's Christmas services this year in order to accommodate all attending in the chapel at 18002 Prairie Ave. The services will follow the theme: "Birthday Gifts for Jesus."

The first service will be held on Dec. 23, at 7 p.m. with the Nursery, Beginner and Primary classes participating under the direction of Mrs. W. Ranzenberger and her committee composed of Mrs. Fred Chaffey, W. Ranzenberger, Cletus Roth, Robert Tan and Marvin Shockley. Mrs. Frank Jacobson is organist.

Teachers of the classes participating are Mrs. T. G. Edickom, Paul Hedge, W. Johnson, Gerald Thompson, Robert Christensen, Marvin Shockley, W. Feierabend, Paul Kasten, Fred Chaffey, and Olga Schulke.

The Christmas story will be told with pageantry, song and narration: Arthur Neumann, Jr., will be the narrator, while the parts of Mother and Father will be presented by Carol Whittaker and Robert Sible, members of the Waltham League.

The children in the opening scene will be played by Linda Chaffey, Debbie Johnson, Jean Den Ouden, Roy Grunke, Mary and Joseph will be played by Lee Andersen, Candle Johnson with Richard Feierabend, Curt Boetzle, Steven Kilfool representing the Wise Men. The Shepherds will be Bobby Basen and Raymond Buck.

On Christmas Eve, Dec. 24 at 7 p.m., the second service for Junior through Senior classes will be held. The Senior confirmation class will narrate the story, while a special medley of Christmas carols will be presented by the Children's Choir. The entire upper division of the Sunday School will participate in various parts of the service.

Simple pageantry will help the congregation visualize the story of Christ's birth. Mary will be played by Donna Taylor, Joseph, by Warren Ward. The Shepherds will be Jimmy Daugherty, Billy Feierabend, Dennis Roth and Greg Schneider, under the direction of Walter Rittamel, the organist and choir director. Mmes. Victor Stone, W. Reed, W. Rittamel, and Robert Rawlins serve as the committee.

Choir caps made by parents of the children will enhance the presentation. Teachers of the classes are: Mrs. J. Reddick, P. Kastin, W. Johnson, Mrs. H. Van Hooser, B. Roth, Mrs. W. Mesker, and Mrs. H. Clark.

During the services, the children will bring gifts of canned meat or fish which will be sent

Religious Science Church Gives Christmas Plans

On Dec. 21, at 11 a.m., Dr. Earl D. Barnum will deliver his pre-Christmas Sunday Sermon which is titled, "Your Star of the East." All Sunday services are pre-ceeded with a half-hour silent healing meditation. The children's Church meets at 10:30 a.m. with a nursery provided.

Sunday Dec. 21, at 6:30 p.m., is the time of the Redondo-Torrance Church of Religious Science Children's Church Christmas program. Parents and friends are cordially invited to attend.

The play to be presented by the children, entitled, "We Build Our Living Church," was written by the past superintendent of the Children's Church, Mrs. Mary Melsheimer.

Christmas Eve Candelight Services will start promptly at 8 p.m. Dec. 24. There will be special music by the choir and Dr. Barnum's Christmas message will be, "The Brightest Candle."

The children in the opening scene will be played by Linda Chaffey, Debbie Johnson, Jean Den Ouden, Roy Grunke, Mary and Joseph will be played by Lee Andersen, Candle Johnson with Richard Feierabend, Curt Boetzle, Steven Kilfool representing the Wise Men. The Shepherds will be Bobby Basen and Raymond Buck.

Pastor A. Wells Observes Start of Ninth Year

The Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church observed the beginning of the ninth year of their Pastor, Robert A. Wells on Dec. 14.

During this time much progress, including two new churches with a combined membership of nearly 600, has been made.

Sunday at the 7:30 p.m. service, the adult choir of the church will present their annual Christmas music program under the direction of Edwin Isbell, minister of music and education. Mrs. John Knoner will act as accompanist.

The pastor will speak at the 8:30 and 10:30 services on the subject "The Saviour is Born." The church Christmas party for the young at heart will be held Dec. 23 in the Youth Building. It will be an informal party with treats provided for the youngsters.

Birth of Christ Party Will Be Held by Church

Among the special services scheduled at St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Normandia Ave. and Lomita Blvd. next week will be the Christ Child's Birthday Party to be held on Dec. 21 at 4 p.m., in which the children of the Nursery and Primary Departments will present "Birthday Gift for Jesus."

"There is No Room" will be the presentation of the Senior Department assisted by the day school children on Dec. 23 at 7:30 p.m.

Highlight of the Advent Season will be the traditional candlelight service at 11 p.m. on Christmas Eve. Choir and congregation will participate in this service of music and song.

Christmas Dinner Held by Oracles

The South Bay Oracles and Past Oracles Club of the Royal Neighbors of America held their annual Christmas dinner at the Western Club in Gardena on Dec. 15.

Members from San Pedro, Redondo Beach, Culver City, Ocean Park, Inglewood, Gardena and Torrance were present.

An exchange of gifts highlighted the evening with a social hour concluding the festivities. The next meeting of the club will be postponed until February when the election of officers will be held.

Young People to Present Yule Service Dec. 21

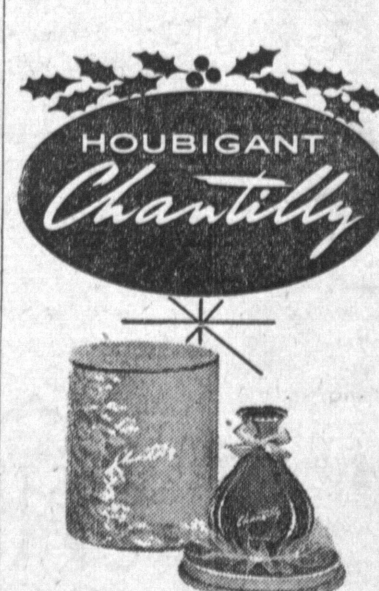

Children and young people of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd Sunday School will present their second annual Christmas service at 10:45 Dec. 21, at Anza Elementary School, 21400 Ellanwood Dr. "Blessings of the Christ Child" is the program title.

The committee in charge of the service includes Mmes. Howard Donhove, Stanley Halverson, and Michael Rimar, Mrs. B. A. Whitney will direct the vocal music, and Mrs. Conrad A. Hovey will act as pianist. Neil Lewis will have charge of visual aids.

Other staff members assisting with the service are Mmes. R. E. Boyd, Robert Buck, Robert Eng, O. W. Gilbertson, Edwin Hutchins, Gordon Nicklasson, and Kenneth Perry; Messrs. R. E. Boyd, Howard Donhove, and Michael Rimar; and the Rev. and Mrs. Gerald W. Garlid. The regular Sunday School session will be held at 9:30 Dec. 21.
