

FOOD PACKAGES—Stanley Heiman, service officer, and J. Rome Gateley, commander of Bert S. Crossland Post American Legion, inspect Christmas food packages which they distributed to needy families in the Torrance area. Press Photo

INDIAN VISITOR—Making an inspection tour of the Torrance schools recently was Dr. N. P. Pillai, dean of education at the University of Kerala in Trivandrum, India. Here, Dr. Pillai and Dr. F. R. Cyphert, Torrance curriculum consultant, look over some of the material used in the local program. The Indian visitor has toured many schools throughout the U.S., studying the teaching of social studies.

Mel-O-Dees Give Holiday Party

A Christmas party for pupils and parents was held Dec. 20 at the Normandale Auditorium on Hilldale Ave. by the Mel-O-Dee Music Studio, 1427 Carson.

song and dance called "The Jolly Snow Man." Teacher Slim Edwards was in charge of the program and directed the various acts.

A play "Christmas for Others" was given, a cast of 65 taking part. Teenagers, Don Campbell, Ilene Poulson, Kathy Duke and Pat Heath entertained with renditions on the violin, and Spanish guitar.

University Women Study Group to Meet in January

Cindy Edwards, 5, gave a "Three Black Crows" Jerry and Shirley Crow of 245th St., Lomita, welcomed their third child, Jeri Elaine, Dec. 6 at Torrance Memorial Hospital.

A speaker and a film from the Los Angeles health department will be featured at the next meeting of the American Association of University Women, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch on Jan. 6.

They have two other daughters, Beckie, 4½, and Beth, 14 months. Grandmother, Hallie P. Crow, of 2375 W. 248th St., Lomita, affectionately refers to her trio of dark haired granddaughters as the "Three Black Crows".

Mrs. Gene La Husen, chairman of the economic and social issues study group, is in charge of the program that will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Brown, 2708 Via Anita, Palos Verdes Estates.

Organized only two years ago, the branch has had a very active year, with 44 new members joining the group.

Members and prospective members from Torrance are invited to attend the meetings; arrangements may be made by calling Mrs. Gene La Husen at FR 5-5073 or FR 5-1821.
