League of Woman Voters Study Units to Discuss Constitution

The League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates started the new year with a general meeting and luncheon at Marineland on Jan. 5. Dr. Kenneth Millsap from the Department of Political Science at Long Beach State College was the guest speaker and discussed the methods of State Constitutional Revision. His talk initiates the League's forthcoming units on study of the California Constitution and possible revisions.

The first two unit meetings will cover problems of the Legislature and the Executive; the two final meetings will deal with methods of revision and a consensus of opinion by its members.

On Jan. 12 the first unit meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Schoeter, 600 Yarmuth Rd. Palos Verdes. Other units will meet as follows Jan. 13 at 10 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Mendel, 4028 Via O'Pala, Palos Verdes. Jan. 13, 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Christensen, 121 Via Alameda Hollywood Riviera. Jan. 14, 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Thomas Kenny, 2304 Via Pinal, Palos Verdes. Jan. 4 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. A. M. Angel, 4463 Silversaddle Lane.

Rolling Hills. On Jan. 25, 27 and 28 the same units will meet at the same time and place for further discussion. For further information all interested are invited to call Mrs. Robert Thompson at FR 5-1061.

Dr. Falde to Speak at Lutheran Church's

Dr. Gaylord Falde, president of the California District of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, will speak at the third anniversary of Christ the King Lutheran Church at 2706 West 182nd St., on Sunday morning at the 8:30 and 11 a. m. services.

Christ the King Lutheran Church had its first service three years ago at the Crenshaw School with 161 in church and 63 in Sunday School present. There are now more than 600 members. Sunday School has an enrollment of 630 with an attendance of 510. Plans for the next year include the erection of a new educational unit to care for the many Sunday School children.
