Hahn Gives '58 Report

Several projects which benefitted the Torrance area were cited today in an annual report submitted by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

Among the improvements for which he takes partial credit is comple.ion of a new library at 15709 Crenshaw Blvd., and demands for construction of new sundings at Harbor General Hospital, which have resulted in preliminary architectural sketches being submitted.

He also pointed out that major improvements in the Alondra Park lake have been completed, including a new bath house, playground, lighting, offstreet parking and landscaping

Major improvements have been started at Victoria Park, 189th St. and Towne Ave., which include a playground, picnic area baseball diamond and landscap-

Hahn said he helped push for construction of the Harbor Freeway, along with city officials. between 124th and 190th Sts. and as result. $8,700,000 has been budget for the work which started in fall.

Among other road projects. the supervisor said he cooperated with Torrance officials in the widening of Prairie Ave., between 174th and 182nd Sts. For this purpose, $20,000 in gas tax funds was allotted.

The west side of Prairie Ave., between Redondo Beach Blvd. and Manhattan Beach Blvd. was also widened, and curbs, gutters and sidewalks installed.

Additional traffic lanes, curbs and gutters were installed on Crenshaw Blvd., between Redondo Beach and Manhattan

Among other benefits received by the area which Hahn serves (the northern part of Torrance to 190th St.) he claims improvements on the Dominguez Channel, one of the major flood control projects in the area.

Action hot and heavy in Bowl-O-Drome's first annual Holiday Doubles Sweeper as addicts strive to contheir three top efforts s six lanes in duel comtion to share in the $750 enteed prize fund. At the ay mark, the Massey and "land combination head the es with their whopping 1310 'ollowed by Joe Cucci and Bo's Combs and their 1298 total. and the C. Wiley and E.
