

PRESTIGE CAR—The Lancia, made in Italy, is now available at the Fiat Agency, Hermosa Beach, now appointed dealer. Complete sales and service for this fine line of autos like the Flamina model shown above, will be available.

Lancia Line Now Available at Fiat Dealership

As part of a national program to make Italian Lancia motor cars available to Americans, the FIAT agency of Hermosa Beach has been appointed Lancia dealer for the southern and western areas of Los Angeles County, according to ofman, inc., United States Distributors.

Lancia, made in Turin, Italy, is widely accepted throughout Europe as a superline prestige car, reflecting the Italian flair for creative design and fine craftsmanship. Three Lancia series, Appia, Aurelia, and Flaminia feature both performance and economy, body designs by Farina and Zagato, add such advanced engineering features as V-4 and V-6 motors.

Complete sale and service facilities will be maintained at 505 Pacific Coast Highway, Hermosa Beach, according to Robert G. Doree, general manager of the Fiat Agency.

Two Accidents Occur at Same Corner

Three persons were injured in two separate accidents at the intersection of Hawthorne and Sepulveda Blvds.

James Arthur Rontier, 18, of 226 N. Irena St., Redondo Beach, was taken to Harbor General Hospital with an arm injury after his car overturned while he was making a right turn, police reported.

Ralph Arthur Hayes, 33, of 3418 W. 255th St., and an unidentified passenger, refused medical aid after their car was involved in a three-car collision at the same intersection, officers said.

Four persons refused medical assistance following a two-car collision on Crenshaw Blvd. between Del Amo Blvd. and 190th St.

Officers listed as injured: David Ellis, 11, Ken Ellis, 4, of 3236 W. 188th St., Matilda Anderson, 69, of 1809 Abalone St., and Cherry Rose, 4, of 20414 Raymond Ave.

They were passengers in autos operated by Lloyd Robert Ellis, 41, of 3236 W. 188th St., and Olaf Paul Anderson, 69, of 1809 Abalone St., police said.

Former Pilot to Be on Southside Lions Program

Ted Carmack, a former Army Air Force pilot shot down in the Himalaya mountains while flying the India-China "Hump" in World War II, will speak at the breakfast meeting of the South Torrance Lions Club on Feb. 11.

Carmack, a writer of short stories and articles, will show a film of the work being done by the Institute to help the blind to live happily and usefully despite their handicap. Braille Institute, a free service center for persons in the Greater Los Angeles area who are blind, is largely supported by questions in wills.

A. E. Perkins of Mercury International is the program chairman.

Seek Dog That Bit Young Boy

Don Stephenson, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stephenson, 22627 Draille Drive must find the dog that bit him on the hand Feb. 2 while he waited for a friend near Seaside Elementary School corner of Reese Rd. and Dennis Drive.

Believed to be a Terrier the dog is described as small, with black and brown spots, wearing a harness.

Anyone seeing a dog of such a description may call Mrs. Stephenson at FR 5-4308. If the dog is found in the next few days Don will be spared taking the painful Pasteur treatment for Rabies.

DOROTHY DIGS
Dorothy Digs will speak on "Dorothy Digs in Our Garden" at the next meeting of the Las Colinas Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Jack Worthen, Feb. 2 at 1 p.m.

Double Barrel Results Come to Mr. Cathey

Vance Cathey, of 2103 W. 245th St., Lomita, was rather pleasantly surprised when he found a Torrance Press classified ad so effective that the same one-bedroom house was rented twice on the same day.

He explained that both he and his partner handled the numerous calls that came in after the want ad appeared Thursday. Unknown to Cathey, who immediately found a tenant, his partner also found a prospective tenant.

The house was rented to the party that left a deposit.

If you have something to buy, rent or sell, call a Torrance Press ad-taker at FA 8-2345 for prompt and courteous service.
