 Although 700 teachers have been invited to Business Industry Education Day here March 17, 300 are still awaiting invitations from sponsoring firms, Fred W. Mill, president of the Chamber of Commerce announced today. Business and industrial executives are requested to contact the Chamber on or before tomorrow to indicate they are willing to invite one or more teachers.

Lucky Stores Launch Sales of Musical Classics at Huge Savings

In cooperation with the National Committee of Musical Arts, Lucky Stores, Inc., today launches a 16 week program to bring the world's greatest music "within the reach of every family."
 The first of 24 hi-fidelity, 12 inch, long-play recordings of 56 of the world's greatest symphonic classics goes on sale today for only 37 cents, with any grocery purchase at the Torrance Lucky Stores.
 Under the widely hailed "Album-A-Week" plan, the remaining albums will be sold for only $1.37, with no additional purchase necessary.
 Each of the genuine vinyl records, individually packaged in the attractive green design which marks "The Basic Library of the World's Greatest Music," would usually cost about $4.
 Each album is accompanied by an illustrated Listener's Guide, with biographical comments about each composer and other useful information—a total of 192 pages of text in the complete set.

One album of each set will be put on sale each week for the first eight weeks and two albums will be placed on sale each week thereafter, until all 24 albums have been made available.
 W. W. Frankenberg, Lucky Stores' Los Angeles Division Manager, announced that an impressive gathering of civic, cultural, and educational leaders will meet in Los Angeles tonight to inaugurate the local program.
 Works of 31 composers, world-famed for the beauty, power, drama and emotional fervor of their music are included in the library. Among them are classics of Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Mozart and Wagner.
 The first album presents the

Methodist Church WSCS Meeting Re-Scheduled
 New frontiers on literacy and Christian literature," was the theme of the Feb. 12 WSCS meeting of the First Methodist Church of Torrance.
 Mrs. Ray Roible led the worship and Mrs. John Almond, missionary chairman, spoke on the life of Frank Laubach.
 Luncheon Mexican style was served by the Priscilla Circle.
 Carmen Suite by Bizet; Introduction and March from Le Coq d'Or by Rimsky-Korsakov; Concerto No. 2 in C Minor, Op. 18, for Piano and Orchestra, 3rd Movement, by Rachmaninoff; and The Sorcerer's Apprentice by Dukas.

Narbonne High school PTA has changed its Feb. 17 meeting time, scheduled for the evening, to 1:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room.
 Mrs. Harry Rhodes, Founder, Day Chairman, has planned the program around Founders' Day and the presentation of the Honorary Life Membership. All past presidents will be honored and Mrs. Rhodes extends a special invitation to all Honorary Life Membership holders to attend.
 A reading, "The Wheels of Progress," will be presented in cooperation with the madrigal singers from Miss Alice Sturdy's music department.
